Policeman Suspended Due to Speed

Hamlin Says Speed On Mercy Errand Endangered Lives

A 15-day suspension was given Police Officer Muri Steele, 1604 West Main, by Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin Thursday afternoon. The suspension came after Steele drove a police car up Ohio Avenue at an excessive speed while taking a woman to the hospital.

Steele had answered a call to the MFA about 1:30 p.m. when ammonia fumes were escaping and Mrs. Mary Bockelman, an employee had been partially overcome. She was placed in the police car and Steele started his trip to the Bothwell Hospital.

Chief Hamlin said, "Although I realize Officer Steele was on an errand of mercy and desired to get the lady to the hospital, I do not believe, in my own opinion, he used good judgment in speeding up Ohio Avenue at the speed he was driving. This not only endangered the lives of the lady with him and his own, but also that of those persons on Ohio."

"I was standing at Second and Ohio when the police car went by, headed south, and as a result of my observation, I feel that I must suspend the officer for the 15 days for not using good judgment."

Chief Hamlin reported that this layoff along with the sickness of two other officers has resulted in his putting on the job two other men. He announced Thursday night effective Friday he was transferring Officer William Raines, 503 East 10th, from the meter department to the police department.

He appointed temporarily Robert Hopkins, 703 East 17th, to the police department as a patrolman.

Chief Hamlin also stated he was replacing Raines in the meter department by Robert Quann, 717 West Seventh. Quann will become a meter mechanic which position Raines has been filling for the past number of months.

Hamlin explained the reason for transferring Raines was he had had some police experience, and in hiring Hopkins, he likewise has had some previous experience on the local department and at Warrensburg.

Fishing Vessel Runs Aground; Two Men Drown

WELLFLEET, Mass. (AP)—Two men drowned, a third was missing, and four other fishermen swam ashore safely through 20-foot waves early today after the Boston fishing vessel Paul Mino went aground on a sandbar during a heavy rainstorm.

The bodies of the cook, Charles Piazzi, 25, and crewman Joseph Panto, both of Boston, were recovered and taken to a funeral home. Missing was the skipper of the 83-foot craft, Angelo Marino, 42, of Everett.

Marino was returning from his second trip since buying the vessel.

The accident occurred at 1 a.m. on the ocean side of Cape Cod.

The survivors were listed as Michael J. Ciarametaro, 42; Frank Ciarametaro, 29, (no relations); and John Norris, 39, all of Gloucester; and James Clements, 45, of Somerville.

Clements was suffering from shock. The others were reported in good condition.

Norris said all the men donned life jackets after the vessel grounded and began taking on water. He added it was raining hard at the time and the wind was blowing about 35 miles an hour.

The craft sank lower as dawn broke, and the seven men decided to try to swim ashore.

Business Buildings Damaged

Tornadic Winds Hit Otterville, California

Tornadic winds struck Otterville and California Thursday night, doing considerable damage. At Otterville a small tornado moved in at about 10:22 p.m., a porch was torn from a house and power lines knocked down. Moving eastward, the twister passed high over Otterville with strong gusts, doing no appreciable damage there.

Reaching California, it dipped down again and damaged buildings of two implement companies and ten homes in its path. The principal damage was to the Montebau Implement Co., a 40 by 80 foot structure where the roof was blown off, windows shattered and implements and machinery piled up by the force of the wind. The manager of the company,

Another New Business Opens Here

A new Sedalia business, South Side Carpets, is holding a grand opening at its home at 1801 South Limit, the former location of the Fairway Gift Shop.

The grand opening celebration will continue until Saturday night, Tom Ash, co-owner, said today. The store, the only Mohawk carpet dealer in Sedalia, is owned by Ash and his father-in-law, August Kaiser.

The store opened Wednesday, and the Grand Opening celebration will be climaxed Saturday, with the presentation of a 9 by 12 Mohawk carpet. In addition, there will be other gifts, including tile for a bathroom and gift certificates.

The new business will feature drapery fabrics, custom-built furniture, floor tile, upholstery fabrics and rugs. All materials sold may be installed if the customer so desires. There are two men assigned to laying carpets, and one as a tile setter. Plans for three outside salesmen, in Sedalia, Knob Noster, and White-man, are being made.

August Kaiser is well known among Sedalians for his hobby of collecting antiques. He has

Nearly 100 Persons Take Part

Hog Marketing Day Here Is a Success

By Merle Vaughan
County Extension Agent

Nearly 100 folks were at the state fair grounds at Sedalia Wednesday to participate in the first hog marketing and grading day. Events included a grading demonstration, a carcass demonstration, a class of market hogs made up of one from each pen exhibited, and the grading of the entire 70 head on display.

In the carcass demonstration the No. 1 hog weighed 205 pounds, had a backfat thickness of 1.37 inches, a loin muscle area of 3.94 square inch and a carcass length of 30 inches. The three primal cuts of ham, loin and shoulder weighed out at 50 percent of the dressed carcass.

The No. 3 hog was 35 pounds heavier at 240 pounds, but its loin muscle area was less at 3.70 square inches. Its backfat averaged 1.97 inches, the carcass was 30½ inches long and the three primal cuts amounted to only 45 percent of the dressed carcass weight. Glenn Grimes, Extension Livestock Marketing Specialist from the University, was in charge of the carcass and grading demonstrations.

Right after lunch each exhibitor was invited to pull out what he thought was his top hog to compete with the pick from the other pens. Each owner had 10 hogs there, so that made a class of seven hogs from the 70 exhibited. The selections were made by a group of hog buyers and commission men from the Kansas City Market. Their presence was arranged by Jim Leathers of the Kansas City Livestock Market Foundation. They included Bill Corson of John Clay Commission Co., Chuck Callaghan of Wilson Packing Company, and Paul Bredehoeft of the Frank Standish Commission Company.

The top three hogs included that of Forest Reid in first place, Paul Stephens in second, and Stevens McClure in third. McClure was ill at home, but was good enough to send his hogs to the meeting.

The Kansas City market folks also graded the entire lot of 70 hogs. Twenty-six graded No. 1 and

Lama's Escape Hailed

Nehru Attests Living Buddha Reaches India

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Tibetan exiles today hailed the escape of the Dalai Lama into India after a perilous flight from the Chinese Reds. They declared he still is their god-king.

Prime Minister Nehru confirmed to a cheering Parliament that the 23-year-old living Buddha of Tibet had reached a haven in India three nights ago, an escape first announced by the Peiping radio Thursday.

"Yes, he is in good health," Nehru said. Indicating the Dalai Lama will be given quick asylum, he promised that the refugee will be treated with great respect.

Prayers of thanksgiving were offered by Tibetan exiles from New Delhi to Kalimpong, the town near Tibet's frontier. The people at Kalimpong went wild with joy.

Nehru said the Dalai Lama crossed the border in northeast India north of the village of Towang, about 500 miles north of Calcutta. Towang has the largest Buddhist monastery in India.

Well-informed sources in Kalimpong said the Dalai Lama made his daring trek of about 300 miles from the capital of Lhasa to the Indian border in two weeks. Sometimes the fugitives saw Chinese Communist search planes overhead.

With the protection of fierce Khampa tribesmen, leaders in Tibet's rebellion, the Dalai Lama crossed great rivers and high mountain passes to reach the frontier, these sources said.

The Chinese Communists, in disclosing Thursday that their quarry had reached India, claimed he was kidnapped by rebels who rose up against the Red overlords in Lhasa, the Tibetan capital, just over two weeks ago.

But Nehru's statement to Parliament made clear that the young ruler fled Lhasa of his own accord and that he was seeking refuge in India.

Nehru said that he first learned Wednesday night that an emissary of the Dalai Lama had arrived at the Indian border in the northeast frontier area of Assam state.

The prime minister said that the young ruler and his party actually had crossed the border the night before but the message from the remote area was slow in reaching him. A second group subsequently arrived to swell the Lama's entourage to 80 persons, Nehru said.

Nehru said the Dalai Lama's emissary sought political asylum for his chief, and that the Indian political officer at Shillong, in Assam state, the chief town 150 miles south of the border, had prior instructions what to do. This was taken as an indication that asylum would be granted.

BULLETIN

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, a jealous mother who couldn't bear to lose her son to another woman, was sentenced today to death in the gas chamber for hiring two men to strangle his pregnant bride.

Fifty-four-year-old Mrs. Duncan showed no emotion as she stood to hear the judge's sentence.

Superior Judge Charles F. Blackstone pronounced the sentence after turning down defense requests for a new trial and for a reduction of the penalty to life imprisonment.

This is hat sailing season. The biggest competition occurs on windy downtown street corners and no one seems particularly interested in being champion.

Mostly fair and cooler tonight. Saturday mostly fair and warmer; low tonight 37; high Saturday 68.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 47, with 45 being low Thursday night. At 1 p.m. it was 56.

Schriever in Line For New Rank, Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Gen. Bernard Schriever, chief of the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division, is in line for a third star and a new job.

The White House announced Thursday that President Eisenhower will nominate Schriever to be a lieutenant general after Congress returns from its Easter recess.

It also was announced that Schriever is to take over as chief of air research and development, succeeding Lt. Gen. Samuel E. Anderson, who recently was reassigned to air materiel.

The Air Force said Schriever's deputy, Brig. Gen. Osmond J. Rittland, will become head of the ballistic missiles division.

Move to Solve Problem Of Cab Parking

Merchants, Cab Officials Meet, Agree Upon Plan

Efforts to relieve a taxi-cab parking problem in downtown Sedalia are being made for the benefit of the merchants as well as for the cab companies. A meeting held this week at the City Hall between parties involved resulted in a proposed plan which is now being put into effect.

After considerable discussion the matter was turned over to City Engineer C. T. Calder, acting as traffic engineer, and Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin. They have come up with a plan to be tried out which has met with approval of the cab owners.

To remove cabs from the streets and from business areas where they had been "bunched", the following spaces have been arranged and are to be designated for taxi cab parking: on the Fifth Street side of the southwest corner of Fifth and Ohio, for a cab of the Veterans Cab Co.; two stands in front of the cab company office at 208 East Second; two stands in the presently marked bus zone on the east side of Lamine between Main and Second.

Yellow Cab Co. will have a parking space on Fourth Street, in front of the Bothwell Hotel just east of Ohio; another in the space between the two driveways to the hotel parking lot; spaces along Lamine between Fifth and the alley south on the west side of the

Local Automobile Dealers Hold Kickoff Breakfast of Campaign

James Gorman, executive vice-president of the Missouri Auto Dealers Association, this morning gave the featured talk at the kickoff breakfast for the "Live Better By Far With A Brand New Car" campaign in Sedalia.

As a special guest of the Sedalia new car dealers who have combined their efforts to promote sales in the Mid-Missouri area, Gorman said the car sale will, in all probability, act as a "Spring Tonic" to "tune up the retail" sales machinery in all fields.

Gorman pointed out to some 55 car salesmen that the automobile industry is an important community project. "During the recession last year," he stated, "economists came to the automobile dealer and, together, they worked out plans to promote spending for the benefit of everyone."

He gave five good reasons to justify the slogan being used this year. A new car, he pointed out, is a sure sign of success. Few people pay attention to a car they have seen in front of a home for the past year or so, but a new one always shows success.

'Contributed to Confusion'

AF Officer Cleared In Plane Ride Case

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Air Force today cleared a lieutenant colonel of charges he bumped six home-bound enlisted men from a transport plane so he and his family could fly to Hawaii for a vacation.

But an Air Force investigating board said the officer, Lt. Col. Charles Platt Jr. of Brooklyn, N.Y., "by his actions contributed to the confusion" which caused the "administrative error" that was blamed for the bumping.

The Air Force did not say specifically what had happened but implied that subordinates handling the flight became flustered by the presence of Platt — their commanding officer — and dropped the waiting GIs from the passenger list.

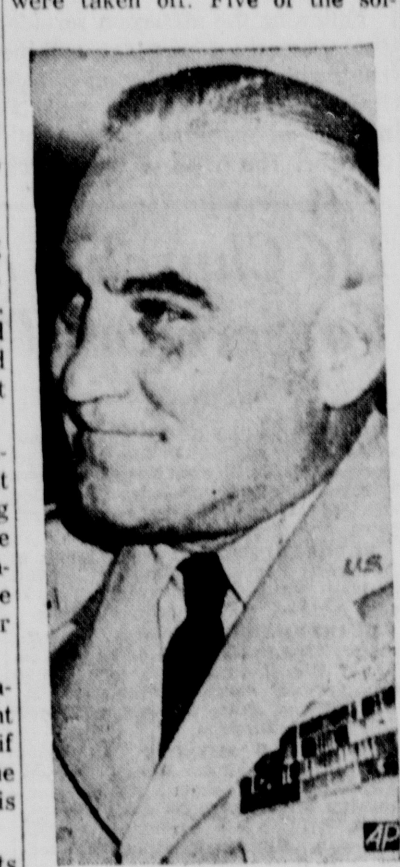

As it turned out, the investigators said, there were eight vacant seats on the plane all the time; if the snafu hadn't happened, the servicemen, the colonel and his family all could have gone.

The board said it had turned its findings over to "appropriate commanders to determine whether or not disciplinary action is required."

The six enlisted men were all on emergency leave because of death or illness to close relatives. The plane took off without them from Tachikawa Air Base, just outside Tokyo, on March 26.

Lt. Gen. Robert W. Burns, commander of American forces in Japan, personally ordered the aircraft to turn back after one of the outraged servicemen called him and complained that Platt, the passenger terminal commander at Tachikawa, and his vacationing family had taken their seats.

When the plane returned, the colonel, his wife and four children were taken off. Five of the soldiers got on and completed their journeys to the United States.

The sixth, Lewis Stramski of Harrah, Okla., had left the base but caught another flight the next day. Because both his first and last names were listed on the manifest, it was at first believed that seven airmen were involved in the incident. Stramski's sister died of polio a few minutes before he reached home.

Platt canceled his vacation to await the investigation. After the board's findings were made public, he told a reporter: "The less I say about it the better. The board findings have to be reviewed, and I would just add fuel to the fire."

"A lot of to-do about nothing," said Gen. Burns, whose popularity with the enlisted men in Japan has soared.

The airman who cut the military red tape and telephoned the general was Cole Y. Bell 27, of Fayetteville, Tenn., whose brother had been seriously hurt in a traffic accident.

The other enlisted men were Airman 2.C. Robert J. Kindl of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., going for the funeral of his 4-year-old son; Airman 3.C. Gordon N. Read, Ithaca, N.Y., whose mother had died; S-Sgt. Paul S. Cain, Sedalia, Mo., whose 9-month-old daughter was critically ill; and Staff Sgt. John P. Snyder of Vandergrift, Pa. Both Bell's brother and Cain's daughter are reported improving.

Kindl said Platt "got mad, pulled rank and ordered a major underneath him to bump us. We were little wheels and he was a big wheel. So he wanted to get to Hawaii and have a good time. He didn't care who it hurt or what the trouble was."

Platt, 49, is a specialist in aerial transportation and was awarded the Legion of Merit in World War II for his work in moving Air Force personnel and equipment from Africa to Europe. During the Korean War he commanded the terminal squadron at Travis Air Base in California.

Farmer Near California Shoots Self

Albert Alonzo (Lon) Birdsong, 64, a farmer residing northwest of California, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound at about 8 a.m. Thursday. Cooper County Sheriff Lybourn Mann said the shooting, which took place at about 5:15 a.m., was suicide.

According to Mann, Birdsong's wife, Mrs. Dorothy Birdsong, heard the shot while she was preparing breakfast. She rushed into the bedroom and saw her husband, clutching a .22 caliber rifle in his hand, lying across the bed. The bullet entered the head just above the left cheek.

Mann said Birdsong had been despondent and moody for some time. He had been in ill health for several months.

An ambulance from the Wilson Funeral Home in California was called to the scene, but Birdsong died shortly after its arrival. Also called from California was Dr. K. J. O'Banion.

Mann said there will be no inquest since the incident was definitely suicide as proven by statements received from Mrs. Birdsong.

Birdsong was born on March 21, 1895, near Clarksburg, son of the late Steven Douglas Birdsong and Kernesia Jane Vaughan Birdsong. He was married to Dorothy McDowell, Clarksburg, on May 26, 1923, who survives.

Also surviving are three daughters, Miss Mary Ellen Birdsong of the home; Mrs. Bill Kinsey, California; Mrs. Estell Wood, Columbia; one son, Albert Birdsong, Kansas City; two brothers, Gollie Birdsong and Edgar Birdsong; a sister, Mrs. Delta Pinkson; one step-brother, Edward Birdsong; one step-sister, Mrs. Cora Luster, Clarksburg; and 12 grandchildren. He was a member of the Pisgah Baptist Church.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, north of Clarksburg, with the Rev. Ivan Dameron officiating.

Burial will be in the Church Cemetery.

The body is at the Wilson Funeral Home, California.

Sears Roebuck Manager
Honored With Breakfast

Mrs. Mildred Goddard, 406 South Quincy, has completed 20 years as manager of the Sears Roebuck and Co. catalog sales office, 117 East Third, and was honored with a breakfast Tuesday morning at Bothwell Hotel by employees in the local Sears office.

Sedalia was the first catalog sales office in the Kansas City territory 20 years ago when Mrs. Goddard accepted the position as manager. Two more were opened shortly afterward and now there are 75, but she has the distinction of being the only original manager of any of the offices still serving.

Mildred Bente Goddard was born in Ottumwa and grew up there. She attended Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, to prepare herself for being a teacher, and went back to Ottumwa, where she taught in the high school for a while. Then she came to Sedalia and taught at Martha Letts Junior High School and later at Smith-Cotton.

When she was married, however, to the late Raymond Goddard, she was disqualified as a teacher, for at that time they would not allow married women to teach, so the Sedalia school system lost a good teacher.

Then, with the opening of the Sears office here, she took over that job, in which she has been very successful. She has, through her efficient way and her always friendly manner, won customers and friends for the company.

Whether she likes teaching or her present position best she has never decided. She says that she has thoroughly enjoyed both, and she has been completely happy in her job at Sears the past 20 years.

Mildred evidently is a nice person to work for, too, for several of the people working at the Sears office here have been there for a long, long time.

The esteem with which she is held by her employees was shown by the breakfast which they gave for her Tuesday. They also presented her with a beautiful corsage. Another surprise awaited her when they reached the hotel to find the breakfast table centered with a handkerchief tree. The little tree, on which were glass birds, blossomed with handkerchief flowers of all shades in paper doilies.

Attending the breakfast were Miss Georgia Sullivan, Mrs. Edna Bolton, Mrs. Dortha Dowdy, Mrs. Margaret Stohr, Mrs. Hazel Curran, Miss Pearl Rose, Mrs. Bertha Sanders, Hank Williams and Emmett Cook, all of the Sedalia office.

Eddie-Liz
May Be Wed
May 11th

By JAMES BACON

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — An ecstatic Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher today made plans for a private wedding that will take place probably May 11.

"No one will know about it until it's over," the joyful actress told a reporter Thursday night.

"We are both very grateful to Debbie."

She was referring to Debbie Reynolds, Fisher's wife, who announced Thursday she would not oppose Fisher's desire to get a quickie Nevada divorce so that he could marry Miss Taylor.

"I wish Liz and Eddie happiness," Debbie said as she arrived in Los Angeles after a transpolar flight from a movie location in Spain.

The news made Liz and Eddie so happy that they literally jumped for joy. A reporter told them of Debbie's statement while the two were at the $500-a-week dude ranch that Miss Taylor rents while Fisher performs nearby at the Tropicana Hotel.

"Liz is flipping," said Fisher. "She's jumping all over the room. I'm grateful that Debbie did this."

Then Liz got on the telephone and said: "I'm so happy I almost passed out at the news. I knew all along that Debbie would consent. Just chalk it up to woman's psychology or intuition."

Liz originally had made plans to attend Burl Ives' opening at the Flamingo Hotel Thursday night. Ives, her co-star in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" and also a fellow Academy Award nominee, was Elizabeth's guest at Fisher's opening Wednesday night.

"I decided that Eddie and I should be alone," she explained. "Also, I've been fighting a sore throat."

She was not at Fisher's supper show but the singer went out to the ranch between shows and she returned with him to the midnight show.

"I'll be here every night from now on," she said, "either out front or around the dressing room."

That means two shows a night for the next six weeks, the time needed for Fisher to establish Nevada residence. He said he probably will charge incompatibility in his divorce suit against Debbie.

Debbie got a California decree in February from Fisher but it will not be final for a year. As a result Liz and Eddie cannot live in California as man and wife until February 1960. Otherwise Fisher would be subject to prosecution for bigamy in that state.

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Railroad men say they are buying more new freight cars and stepping up repairs of old ones to get ready for the 1959 wheat harvest.

Spokesmen for the Missouri Pacific, Santa Fe, Burlington and Rock Island gave that report to a Senate subcommittee before it closed a hearing on the boxcar situation yesterday.

Russell L. Dearthmont of St. Louis, Missouri Pacific president, said railroads must be allowed to "compete ratewise with other forms of transportation so as to price our services more realistically."

These spaces are to be designated for taxi-cab parking only, and any car which might park there, other than a cab, will be given a ticket and towed away. The spaces are being painted and appropriate signs posted to let the public know they are for taxi standing.

Attending the meeting were a number of merchants, Harry Naegele, chairman of the parking committee; S. J. Timbrious, chairman of the zoning committee; Marvin and Olen Howard, owners of the Yellow Cab Co.; and their manager, Roscoe Thomas; and Ray Davis, owner of the Veterans Cab Co.; Police Magistrate Thomas T. Keating; City Engineer Calder; Chief Hamlin, and Mayor Abe Silverman, who presided.

Complaints have been made to the city of the taxi cab "hogging" parking areas and causing business firms to complain their customers had no place to park nearby. The owners of the cab companies were not happier over the situation than the merchants, and they likewise desired to solve the problem.

Judge Keating read the ordinance on parking which provides the taxicabs cannot park in the downtown area only to load or unload except in such areas provided for them.

Man Is Held
For Entering
A Garage

About 11:40 a.m. Thursday Robert D. Weikal, 30, of 620 North Quincy, was driving west on Highway 50 and passed the home of his mother, Mrs. Julia Weikal, a little more than two miles west of LaMonte. He noticed an automobile parked in the driveway and a man getting out of a car near the garage.

Weikal, knowing his mother was at work and nobody should be at home, drove a little farther, then turned around in time to see the car pulling out of the drive. He followed it, got the license number and description, then went back to the house and found the padlock broken open and a tool box missing.

Weikal had noticed Trooper Richard Joos parked at the Guthrie service station in LaMonte, so he started for there to notify him. Trooper Joos had started traveling west in his patrol car and saw Weikal waving at him in the other one-way lane. Joos said he at first thought Weikal was just waving, but noticed him cutting back across, so he stopped.

Informed of the robbery, Trooper Joos told Weikal to follow him and started back east in an effort to overtake the car. In the meantime, he remembered Trooper Robert E. Stockdell being in the Sedalia area and he informed him by two-way radio of the robbery and gave the car's license number.

Stockdell started west on the Main Street Road and arrived at Gasoline Alley a few seconds before the hunted car arrived. The driver, seeing Stockdell, turned west at Main Street, but got no farther than behind the Jerry Brown Service Station. Stockdell then radioed to Joos that the subject was stopped. It was 12:05 p.m. when the man was apprehended.

Joos was passing through Dresden when he got the message and he and Weikal arrived at the junction a few minutes later. The man, who identified himself as Vernon Lee Chartier, 33, Phoenix, Ariz., said he had not stolen anything. But Weikal told the troopers the tool box in Chartier's car was made out of boards from a Burma Shave sign. The box was opened and was found to have "Burma Shave" lettered on the inside.

Chartier was questioned at the scene, then taken to the Pettis County jail, where he is being held pending the filing of charges by Prosecuting Attorney Harold Barrick.

Control The Toe-Slicer

It will not be long before lawn grass will reach cutting height and, like the voice of the turtle and the sound of the katyids, the hum of the lawn mowers will fall upon the human ear.

The hum of the lawn mower will in many cases be the power mower—a great improvement upon the human push. The hardware, appliance, department and garden supply stores expect that young as well as not-so-young home owners will this year buy more power mowers than ever.

The young people want the mowers because they want that grass cut in a hurry; the not-so-young owner wants it for the same reason but also to save that heart of his. However, unless one controls the use of a power mower with intelligence he may come up with a missing toe or finger. The price of modern inventions can often be a serious physical handicap.

Power mowers should not be entrusted to children. Even teenage boys who were considered responsible have come out of the lawn mowing experience with missing extremities. Like any other useful tool, the power lawn mower should be well guarded and used with intelligence and kept out of hands (and feet) of little children.

Lonely Batista Denounces Castro

(Editor's Note—Drew Pearson today interviews ex-President Batista, now in exile in the Dominican Republic.)

By DREW PEARSON
CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic—The last time I saw Fulgencio Batista was at Sancti Spiritus in the interior of Cuba, when he was still a hero. For miles down the road, traffic was jammed. In front of the reviewing stand, a parade milled and saluted the president of Cuba. Batista had come through that crowd, his white suit mussed and mauled by friendly hands that reached out to greet him.

That was in the late summer of 1955. Four years later, I saw Batista walking in the garden of the Hotel Jaragua, in this city, in exile and very much alone. A lot of people have interviewed Fidel Castro, but no one the man he replaced. So for two hours I talked to the ex-president of Cuba.

I remarked that he was looking thin. "These days are very sad ones and I cannot eat or sleep too well," he said.

"The last time I saw you, the crowds were saluting you with great enthusiasm," I reminded. "You were a hero. What happened in between?"

"You are a newspaperman," replied Batista. "You know what the press can do. When the press continually calls a man a dictator—people eventually believe it. We have a saying that the 'press is the fourth power'—and the press of both Cuba and the United States is powerful."

"Most of the people of Cuba were with me even at the end," Batista continued. "Three times Castro called for a general strike and there was no strike. Workers' living standards had reached the highest point in history—according to your own Department of Commerce. I had built more hospitals and opened more schools than any president in history. You were there. You saw those schools."

U.S. Casts Arms Supply
"Finally," he said, "the impression prevailed that the United States was against me. And you would be surprised what happens in a country when people believe the United States is against you. You have no idea the power the United States can wield by cutting off the supply of arms. I could not buy arms; Castro was smuggling them from Venezuela, from Mexico, and from the United States."

"But how do you explain the great crowds that welcomed Castro in Havana and all along the road to Havana?" I asked.

"He was the winner. Crowds always hail the winner. Crowds are fickle."

"But didn't you make the mistake of staying in office too long?" I inquired. "Wouldn't you have gone down in history a great president if you had remained out of office when you first retired from the presidency in 1944?" "Maybe. A man can always look back and figure that he should have done things differently. But in 1950 I was asked three times to lead a coup d'etat. I refused. People were fed up with the graft. The army was ready to rebel. I still refused. Finally they

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

GLAD TIDINGS FROM RUSSIA—The Soviet Union attaches great value to the human being, irrespective of nationality, race and religion.

So said Khrushchev on February 5th in the same speech in which he called us "merchants of Death," and invited President like to visit him as "a welcome guest."

Khrushchev's assurance should be read in the light of the record.

Actions speak louder than words. Brother Khrushchev joined the Communist party 41 years ago. He practiced Communism under Lenin and Stalin. That he has survived to this date proves that he has never deviated from the party line.

That line includes the O.G.P.U., the secret police; "confessions" obtained by torture, the purge; liquidation without trial; the Katyn Forest; Hungary; suppression of religion, free speech and a free press; exile in slave labor camps north of the Arctic Circle where exhaustion killed more than Hitler's gas chambers.

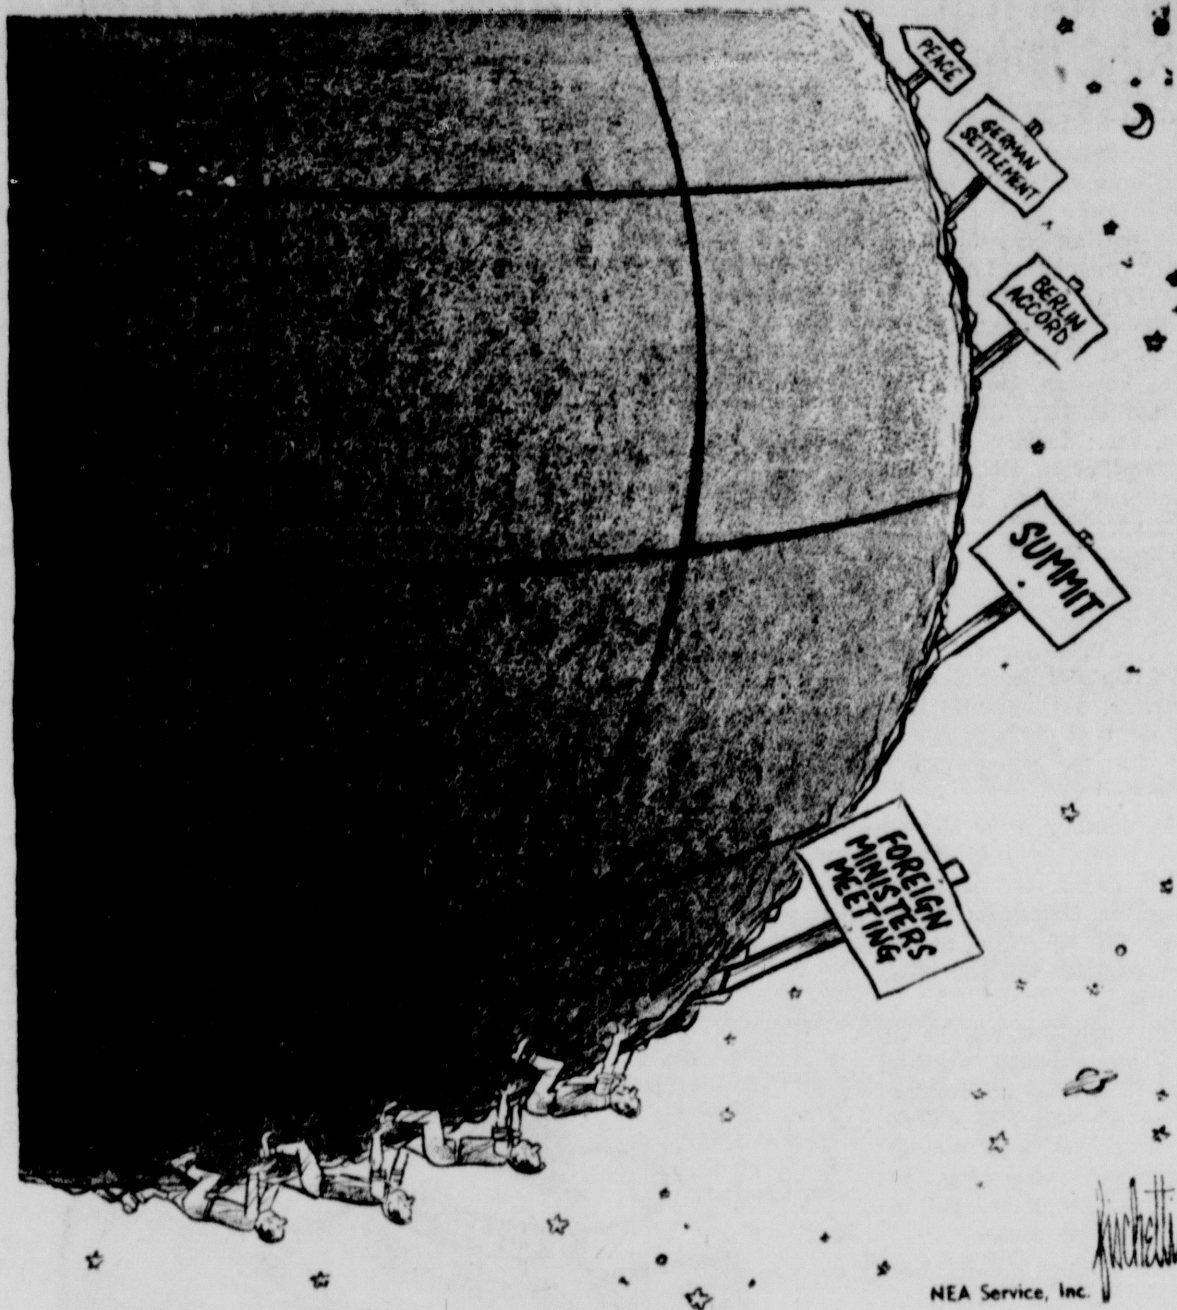

Ivan the Terrible, and Peter the Great, monsters of brutality though they were, never placed "such value on the human being"—dead! Such has been the reign of Communist terror, more frightful than a thousand years of Russia's sanguinary history. The Soviets killed at least 15,000,000 of their own helpless people.

Khrushchev himself was in chief charge of wiping out all Ukrainian opposition to his monolithic police state!

It is good news that the Reds "attach great value to the human being."

Khrushchev says so, himself.

Symptoms of Shakeup and Frozen Policy

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—It has taken the Western allies about four months just to reach a point where they seem agreed on standing firm on the Berlin crisis.

They had been agreed for some weeks on willingness to negotiate with the Soviet Union to settle the crisis peacefully. But if they know—much less being agreed on—what they want to negotiate, it's still locked up in their heads.

Chances are they don't know—yet, and won't until they've done some more weeks of talking. All of which is pretty good evidence of two things:

1. How thoroughly Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev shook them up with his demand last November that the United States, Britain and France get their troops out of West Berlin which is 110 miles inside Communist East Germany.

2. How thoroughly allied policy in Europe has been frozen for years and how thoroughly it was unprepared to meet a sudden twist in events like the one pulled by Khrushchev.

The Allies haven't lacked time for plenty of discussion since last November.

British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, after conferring with Khrushchev, visited President Eisenhower, President Charles de Gaulle of France and West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

His visits seemed something less than fully satisfactory from the standpoint of allied unity. Reports of disagreement between him and Eisenhower—or, perhaps it would be better to say their failure to see eye-to-eye—leaked out.

Then this week the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany met for two days before the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's 15-member nations opened their session here.

As late as Thursday afternoon it was reported the Western allies were split, with Britain off on one side suggesting they concentrate on solving the Berlin situation even at the cost of delaying unification of Germany.

To put it another way: There have been reports the British were for making concessions to the Soviets to get over the Berlin hump.

Then Thursday night NATO spokesmen sought to paint a picture of unity at last among the Big Three and West Germany with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd represented as taking a stand for German reunification, too.

In short: the NATO spokesmen attempted to show allied unity in determination to withstand Soviet pressure for concessions.

make concessions—in return for Soviet concessions—there doesn't

But if the West isn't ready to seem much reason for negotiations.

As for concessions: It seems to this writer the West has already made a big one. For years the West—particularly the United States—had insisted on the reunification of East and West Germany through free elections.

Now talk of reunification through free elections seems to have disappeared from the speech of Western spokesmen. Actually, the idea of uniting the two Germanys through free elections has been unrealistic from the beginning.

The reason: The Soviet Union is against it and this year Khrushchev again brushed aside any such idea. And no wonder. East Germany is a Russian satellite. Moscow isn't going to chance losing anything it has its hands on.

It would lose East Germany in any free election set up to choose a single German government which would decide whether it wanted to be pro-West or pro-Communist.

There's pretty good reason to believe the 18 million East Germans would vote against any connection with communism which was rammed down their throats. But even if they were pro-Communist they are outnumbered by the 50 million West and pro-West Germans.

Don't Always Fret About Explaining Your Reasons

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Recently a neighbor of ours took her six-year-old shopping for shoes. Afterwards they stopped in at an ice cream parlor. As James' mother paid the cashier, he became interested in the candy display. Joining him she said, "Come on. It's time to get home."

The three words he spoke have become a vogue among the children in my city. Continuing to drift along the candy counter, he said, "Explain me why."

She was tired — and had had all she could take of "Explain me why." She said, "Because I say so."

It worked.

With the encouragement of his wife, Mary Todd Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln ran for and was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1846. During his single term he was not a popular congressman because he was opposed to the Mexican War and because he refused to get offices for his political friends unless he thought they were qualified. In 1848, he was not renominated and he returned to Springfield, Ill., determined to give up politics.

Like Japanese beetles, a phrase like "Explain me why" can't be confined to one area of our country. When it starts badgering you, I hope you respond to it with a firm "Because I say so."

Because today's children know all about our need to justify any denial of what they want. They know that we want to appear right to them more than anything else in the world.

They have become adept at exploiting this need with phrases like "Explain me why." They force us to rally every reason we can think of to make ourselves sound irrefragable.

Like James, they seldom feel any genuine interest in our reasons for wanting them to leave candy counters, to go to bed or reduce the TV volume. They have just discovered that "Explain me why" keeps us busy trying to justify what we want while they continue to do what they want.

The response "Because I say so" is a very good experience for them.

It's good experience because no authority is ever perfectly reasonable.

So we have no moral right to try and present ours as always perfectly reasonable. Like us, children have to learn to pull over to curbs whether the traffic cop explains his order or not. They're going to have to rush letters through for their bosses whether or not his demand for speed seems reasonable.

While any self-respecting adult has to take issue with authority when it violates integrity, no sensible person asks perfection from it. People who want reasons for everything you ask them to do are just as boring as people who never want any.

New Plans In Converting Salt Water to Fresh Water

By Robert E. Hennessee
Of Our Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON — A little-known government office, relegated to a small corner of the Interior Department, is on the very threshold of solving one of man's oldest and greatest problems.

The problem was expressed best in Coleridge's Ancient Mariner: "Water, water everywhere, Nor any drop to drink."

Interior Secretary Fred Seaton does not term it a "breakthrough" in announcing his office of Saline Water's latest development is changing salt water to fresh water. But it is of momentous significance.

This development—known as "long-tube vertical multiple effect distillation"—has cut the cost at least 50 per cent to one dollar for each thousand gallons converted. This plant can be built for about $1 million. And the government is proceeding with plans to build five in selected communities around the country. Each plant could de-salt one million gallons each 24 hours.

But this is not the complete story. Dr. W. I. Miller, director of the Office of Saline Water, told this reporter that some of the engineers in the Office of Saline Water say by just making some parts of the plant larger, that the cost can be cut in half again to 50 cents or less per thousand gallons and the daily production raised to 35 million gallons in each plant.

This amount would be sufficient to supply a city of a quarter million people and the cost would not necessarily be prohibitive.

Also, Dr. Miller's office has still another process for conversion which will be announced shortly and which Dr. Miller says is, every bit as good as this long-tube distillation method.

Where the original five plants will be located has not been decided. But the communities selected probably will have to offer the government low cost electric power and agree to purchase the plants in 1967, as called for by law.

Dr. Miller, a former congressman from Nebraska, said communities and cities all around the nation are seeking the plants and, as to be expected, the senators and congressmen are applying pressure.

Also, many foreign countries are vitally interested, particularly Israel and other Middle Eastern and North African nations, where fresh water can be as precious as gold and about as scarce.

Hints For Mr. Taxpayer As April 15 Date Nears

By FAYE HENLE

Last call for the April 15 filing of your 1958 Federal income tax.

Year after year, the Internal Revenue Service begs "write legibly." They have never tallied the number of returns which they cannot decipher names and addresses, yet they claim such illegible returns run into the thousands.

Two other hints from the IRS: If the return is a joint one, make certain both husband and wife have signed.

Check and double check your arithmetic. There is just as good a chance that an error in figuring will cost you and not the government money.

In many a home the wife is the bookkeeper. If this is so, there is a job for her to do before the actual filing out of forms begins. All cancelled checks, receipts, records of contributions, interest payments and such should be placed together ready for the annual tax-figuring jamboree.

Get out a duplicate of last year's return. This is a good guide for filing the new. (Such records should be kept at least three years after the filing date in case the IRS might wish to raise a question.)

Are you aware of the special advantages for women taxpayers? The law allows a widow whose husband died in either of the two preceding tax years to compute the tax on her income on the lower rates applying to a joint return of husband and wife. To do so, however, the taxpayer must not have remarried.

She must also maintain a home occupied by a child or stepchild to whose exemption she is entitled and must have been entitled to file a joint return with her late husband for the year of his death.

There is also provision for special tax rates for persons who are unmarried (or legally separated) at the end of the taxable year and who furnished over half the cost of maintaining as a home a household occupied by a related person or a married child, grandchild or stepchild for whom the taxpayer is entitled to a deduction for exemption. The special rate also applies if the household included an unmarried child, grandchild or stepchild even though they are not dependent upon the taxpayer.

A word about deductions: The IRS is on the lookout for those who pad their tax-allowable deductions. They take a closer look at the return in which personal deductions are larger in amount than that usual for the specific income bracket or occupation. However, if proper deductions exceed the average, do not hesitate to take them providing you have the proof to back up such action should you be queried by the IRS.

Based on 1956 returns, here are average tax deductions that were permissible:

For an adjusted gross income of $4,000 to $4,500, allowable were $183 for contributions, $233 for interest, $205 for nonfederal taxes and $533 for casualty, medical and miscellaneous.

For an adjusted gross income of $5,000 to $6,000, allowable were $206 for contributions, for interest $306, for nonfederal taxes $264 and for casualty, medical and miscellaneous $542.

Businessman Mistaken For Bank Robber

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A carefree holiday turned into a near nightmare Thursday night for a businessman who was mistaken for one of the FBI's 10 most wanted fugitives.

"It wasn't too pleasant, I'll tell you," said Truman Pennell of Wichita Falls, Tex., as he left police headquarters. A frantic manhunt had led to his arrest.

Police believed he was Frank Lawrence Spreng, 29, the flying bank robber who has been on the FBI's most wanted list since Sept. 10, 1958.

Pennell, 36, was arrested after his four-passenger plane, which matched the description of one in which Spreng was hopping about the country, crashed nearby.

Alerts for Spreng's plane had been put out in neighboring Mississippi and earlier in the day at Chicago and New Orleans.

Police became even more certain Spreng was in the area when the plane's occupant did not arrive at a hospital for which he had started.

"I just changed my mind," Pennell explained later.

He and his pilot, Jimmie Lynn Hamilton of Columbia, S.C., left the crash scene with S.Sgt. and Mrs. Paul E. Pearson who offered to take them in their car to the Little Rock Air Force Base hospital.

On the way Pennell and Hamilton decided they were not hurt badly and would drive into Little Rock.

They were on their way when police, armed with shotguns, stopped them.

Warned that Spreng would be armed and dangerous, police officers took no chances and ignored Pennell's protests.

State police road blocks had been thrown up throughout the area.

Hamilton said the plane either ran out of gas or developed engine trouble and he crash-landed in the best spot he could find.

Pennell and Hamilton were treated for minor cuts and bruises at a hospital and released.

Castro to Visit US This Month; Looks for Money

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro says he will be looking for money as well as defending "Cuba and her revolution" on his visit to the United States later this month.

The bearded revolutionary told a TV audience Thursday night that he will seek loans from the U.S. Export-Import Bank and "all sources of credit possible."

The Batista government left only 70 million dollars in the treasury, Castro said, adding that Cuba's economic situation was further aggravated by failing sugar prices and increased competition from other sugar countries.

Castro is leaving for Washington April 15 on an unofficial visit as the guest of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. He accepted the invitation before becoming prime minister Feb. 2.

Castro said he had no fear of any questions that may be asked him by American newspapermen. The executions of Batista henchmen, totaling between 400 and 500, has come in for considerable criticism in the United States, and Castro said he would explain that to the Americans.

He said he was mystified at some objections to his trip in a private capacity and commented, "I like simple things more than protocol."

Three Men Killed In Helicopter Crash

RICHLAND, Wash. (AP)—Three men were killed Thursday evening when an Army helicopter crashed and burned on the sprawling Hanford Atomic Works Reservation 25 miles north of here.

One of the men, Capt. Patrick McDonnell of Vancouver, Wash., and Richland, was a brother of an Air Force sergeant, William A. McDonnell, 25, who died in a similar helicopter crash in the Spokane River at Spokane, Wash., March 22.

The other two killed Thursday were Chief Warrant Officer Leo F. Tuttle, the pilot, of Palouse, Wash., and Maj. Joseph Giuliani of St. Paul, Minn., and Richland.

The Army said the crash occurred while the helicopter was on a routine training flight.

McDonnell was married and the father of four children. Giuliani's widow and five children live here, and Tuttle's widow and two children reside in West Richland, Wash.

HILLSBORO, Tex. (AP)—Lollie Watson, 78, injured Tuesday night when a tornado slashed through Bynum, south of here, died Thursday night.

Mrs. Watson suffered internal and severe leg injuries in the north central Texas storm.

Her death brought the toll in Texas from the twisters at Bynum and nearby Vaughan to seven.

Mrs. Garnet Cain of Bynum remained in a local hospital in critical condition.

Marshall Owls Win Title

S-C Tigers Turn in Promising Performance in Triangular Meet

Despite a second place finish in Thursday's triangular track meet with Marshall and Carrollton, the Smith-Cotton Tigers' track team turned in a promising performance.

The Bengals claimed five firsts in the 14 event meet and wound up with 54 5-6 points. The Marshall Owls won the title with 65 2-3 points and five firsts. Carrollton tallied 27½ points and took four firsts. Smith-Cotton also recorded three seconds; two thirds; and one fourth.

Melvin Brown was top point maker for the Tigers with 11½. The senior letterman soared 105'7" in winning the pole vault and he won the 440-yard dash in :54.4. According to S-C coaches Forest Arnall and Sid Kennon, Brown cleared the standard by six or eight inches in his winning vault and displayed excellent form. As S-C's top 440 man last season, Brown's best time was :54.3. By contrasting Thursday's performance with his 1958 efforts, Brown could conceivably clear 11-feet in the vault and run the 440 in about :53. Brown also anchored the winning Sedalia mile relay team with a :55.1 quarter.

Senior Dennis Houk clipped off the 880-yard run in 2:08.5 for first place. This represents his best time in the half. Houk, who scored eight points, finished second in the mile with a 4:59. He strode through a :58.5 anchor leg on the winning "B" team mile relay.

Clell Funnell also accounted for eight Sedalia points. The sharp stepping junior topped the 180-yard low hurdles field in :22.3 on a full curve. He placed second in the 120 yard high hurdles with an :18.0. Despite the flu which slowed him early in the week, Funnell's effort was a big contribution to Sedalia.

Jim Hausam, a promising sophomore, got his first taste of meet competition on the high school level and served notice that he'll be tough to cope with as he gets stronger. Hausam finished in a dead heat for second in the 440 with a :56.3. He was also the lead off man on the winning mile relay team.

Sedalia's 880-yard relay team, composed of Gary Christian, Charles Case, Bob Vedder and Jack Benner, turned in a 1:36.9 performance—the best of any S-C relay team in six years—but finished 8 second behind Marshall. Sedalia's best 880-yard relay team in 1958 was 1:39.1. Smith-Cotton's school record for the 880-yard relay is :1:35.6 and was established in 1940. The Jennie Jaynes Stadium record for the event is 1:35.9 set in 1954 by Springfield College. Jack Benner anchored the Sedalia team and covered the final 220 yards in :23.7 and was closing the gap on the Marshall anchor man.

Smith-Cotton's next varsity meet is a triangle with California and Boonville at Jennie Jaynes Stadium on Tuesday. Marshall will be at Sedalia on Thursday for a dual meet.

Otto Von Krupp

Von Krupp To Return Next Tuesday

Otto Von Krupp, with his eye on the Central States wrestling championship, may find the road a little rougher than he supposes. The big German is back in this area after a five-month stay in the east where he twice wrestled before sellout crowds in Madison Square Garden.

Otto is booked here next Tuesday night, but he'll have some help. Von Krupp will team with Lee Henning and Rip Hawk against Dino Bravo, Bobby Bruns and Farmer Marlin.

It's almost a cinch all three opponents will gang up on Von Krupp if they get the chance. Nobody, wrestlers and fans alike, seems to want Otto to have a chance to get in contention for the Central States title, which is currently held by Cowboy Bob Ellis. When Von Krupp was here several months ago he not only riled his foes, but also alienated most of the fans.

Otto claims he's reformed and is not as rugged as he was when he was here before. He's said a lot of things in the past and fans want to see him back his words up before they agree they are seeing a new Von Krupp in action.

The six-man team event should be one of the wildest ever held in the Armory. Bruns, Bravo and Marlin are all big and rugged and can rough-house it if that's the way their foes want it.

Henning, of course, is a front-line scrapper who cares little for rules. With Lee and rough Rip Hawk as partners, Von Krupp will have some solid backing.

Marlin will team with midget Cowboy Bradley against Von Krupp and Tiny Roe in the semi-final. Hawk will test Bravo in the added event and Roe is matched against Bradley in the opener.

Rain Forces A's To Cancel Game; May Lose Reed

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Rain forced the Kansas City Athletics to cancel an exhibition game with Detroit yesterday, and as a result rookie Howard Reed may go back to the minors.

The 22-year-old right-hander had been scheduled to start against Detroit and work nine innings if possible. His performance would have gone a long way toward determining where he spends the summer.

Reed has only one year of professional experience. But the A's called him up late last season, and he defeated the Chicago White Sox 2-1 in 10 innings, allowing only five hits.

This spring Reed won a spot in the exhibition pitching rotation. But Craft said yesterday that when the season starts he plans to go with his more seasoned pitchers, and Reed may be sent back to the minors where he can work regularly.

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—(NEA)—The $40,000 Las Vegas Tournament of Champions is a golf tournament the financial proportions of which reach Wall Street figures.

One gambler has standard odds—10,000 to 1—that no golfer in the field will score a hole in one on the fourth, seventh, 11th and 16th holes. There is a standard price of 2-1 that tee shots on the par 3 seventh hole won't land on the green.

Texas Relays Started In Austin Today

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Preliminaries leading to record potentials in a half dozen events got the Texas Relays off today.

Bobby Morrow, the triple gold medal winner of the Olympic games, was in the spotlight.

Morrow runs tonight against Ira Murchison of Western Michigan, co-holder of the world's record 10.1 in the 100-meter dash.

The special 100 meter also has such sprint stars as Ollan Cassell of Houston, former national AAU 220-yard champion; Bill Woodhouse, Morrow's erstwhile teammate at Abilene Christian College; Sidney Garton and John West, of East Texas State.

Seventeen championships will be determined tonight with 23 more on the line Saturday afternoon.

The huge track and field carnival has drawn its largest entry—1,265 athletes—and more are likely.

Two relays records could come from preliminaries in field events this afternoon. Bill Alley of Kansas, who last week hurled the javelin 238 feet 4 inches, will be after the mark of 252-10½. Ernie Shelby of Kansas, who already holds the broad jump record of 26 feet 3½ inches, will be trying running and Oklahoma, which set the record of 9-54.4 last year, is back with its team intact.

Other records in danger are the pole vault mark of 14 feet 3¼ inches, which Ken Pollard of Nebraska is expected to remove, and the high jump record of 6 feet 9 inches, which Don Stewart of Southern Methodist, the NCAA champion, might erase.

NEW YORK (AP)—"This is great news. I'm a fighter and I want to fight. The more the better."

So said heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson when told that a four-fight program had been lined up for him in the next 19 months.

If he wins them all he could earn upwards of a million dollars (before taxes and manager's cut) before Nov. 1, 1960.

Definitely on Floyd's busy schedule are the defenses against England's Brian London at Las Vegas, May 1 and against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, undefeated European champion, at Yankee Stadium, June 25.

Beyond these two are title defenses against opponents still to be picked. The London fight and the two after Johansson are part of a three-fight package with NBC television.

Patterson said his manager had not informed him yet of the four-fight program.

The manager, elusive Gus D'Amato, was so busy that he didn't attend two press conferences in which the Las Vegas fight was confirmed and the date and ball park for the Johansson fight were announced.

At the first press conference, Admiral John Bergen, board chairman of Madison Square Garden, Tom Gallery of NBC and Promoter Cecil Rhodes Jr. announced the three-fight deal for NBC television.

Admiral Bergen called D'Amato "a fine fellow," said the Garden hoped to take part in promoting two of Patterson's title fights. He also expressed hope that D'Amato's other fights would appear in the Garden. This indicated the end of D'Amato's feud with the Garden.

D'Amato, however, probably will continue his vendetta with James D. Norris and Truman Gibson, former heads of the International Boxing Clubs, who now operate out of Chicago and who have the Wednesday night TV fights.

Giant-Killer Maps Plans To Avenge Losses

BOSTON (AP)—Giant-killer Minneapolis today mapped slow-down tactics to atone for 18 straight losses to the Boston Celtics and regain its rating as the royalty of pro basketball.

The setting will be the finals of the National Basketball Assn. playoffs which open Saturday afternoon at Boston Garden in a nationally televised contest (NBC-TV 3 p.m. EST).

The Lakers, who finished 17 games back of defending world champion St. Louis in the Western division only to stun the Hawks in the regional playoffs, aren't going to play dead for the Celts.

Boston has crushed the Lakers in a cross-country victory string that extends back to their final meeting of the 1956-57 campaign. The Celts have won on their own court, at the Minneapolis Auditorium and on neutral floors with equal ease.

But playoffs are a different matter as St. Louis discovered. Led by the scoring magic of rookie-of-the-year Elgin Baylor, the Lakers wiped out the Hawks in six games.

Meanwhile, Boston had to go the full seven contests to eliminate Syracuse in a frantic finish.

"The trick is to knock about 10 or 12 points off the 119-point average the Celts have been scoring at our expense," explained Minneapolis Coach Johnny Kundla. "I think that would beat them."

Other records in danger are the pole vault mark of 14 feet 3¼ inches, which Ken Pollard of Nebraska is expected to remove, and the high jump record of 6 feet 9 inches, which Don Stewart of Southern Methodist, the NCAA champion, might erase.

Actions Speak Louder

Casey Isn't Talking Much About Yankee Mound Staff

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Casey Stengel isn't doing too much talking these days about his New York Yankee pitching staff. He doesn't have to—their actions are speaking louder (and possibly clearer) than could his words.

With the season getting into full swing a week from today, the World Champions are getting Grade-A performances from all of their expected starters. The only possible leak in the Yankee dike that is expected to hold back the American League contenders is the sudden back injury to first baseman Bill Skowron.

In the last five days, Stengel has gotten top-flight performances from Tom Sturdivant, Bobby Shantz, Art Ditmar, Don Larsen, Bob Turley, Jim Coates and Whitey Ford.

These are the men Stengel expects to use in his starting pitching rotation. The latest line runs like this:

Sturdivant: Pitched seven innings against the Chicago White Sox March 29, allowing two runs and six hits. In 1958, the righty was 3-6 with a 4.18 earned run average.

Shantz: In seven innings against the Cincinnati Reds on March 30, he allowed five hits and no runs. The little lefty was 7-6 last year with a 3.36 ERA.

Ditmar: On March 31 against Kansas City, the right-hander gave nine hits and two runs in eight innings. He had a 3.41 ERA last year, winning nine of 17 decisions.

Larsen: Stricken with a pulled muscle in his pitching shoulder March 15, the big right-hander allowed the St. Louis Cards one run on three hits over four innings. April 1. He was 9-6 with a 3.08 earned run average last year.

Turley: Pitched nine innings for the Yankee B squad in a 4-3 decision over Richmond of the International League, also on April 1. The World Series star was Stengel's leading pitcher in '58 with a 21-7 record and a 2.98 ERA.

Coates: Relieved Larsen and pitched one-hit ball for three innings. The rookie has drawn Stengel's praise as the bright light of his young hurlers and will probably stick with the club.

Ford: Went eight innings yesterday, beating the St. Louis Cards 2-1, and scattered nine hits. He did not show any signs of arm trouble, which has plagued him in the past. The little lefty was 14-7 last year with a 2.01 ERA.

In other exhibition games Thursday, the Boston Red Sox won the Cactus League title with a 4-2 victory over San Francisco, the Cleveland Indians knocked off the Chicago Cubs 4-2, and in night games the Philadelphia Phils defeated Baltimore 8-6 and the Chicago White Sox won over Cincinnati 6-5.

Los Angeles-Pittsburgh, Washington-Milwaukee and Kansas City-Detroit were rained out.

Larry Jackson won the distance for St. Louis, allowing nine hits, Skowron, hitting .446, strained a back muscle during a pregame warmup.

Frank Malone's two-run homer and Haywood Sullivan's solo shot paced the Red Sox while Tito Francona's two-run double broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth inning to give the Indians their victory.

Willie Jones paced the Phils 13-hit attack with two singles and a double for three RBI, with Jim Finigan's error in the third inning opening the flood gates for four Phillie runs.

Jim Landis' homer off Joe Nuxhall with one out in the ninth gave the White Sox their victory. Gus Bell hit a three-run homer and Frankie Robinson one with none on for Cincy.

WARRENSBURG, Mo. (AP)—Ottawa University took nine first places and eight second places in beating the Warrensburg State Mules 77 ½ to 52 ½ yesterday in a dual track meet.

Tom Anderson of Warrensburg made 13 points by winning both hurdle races and taking second in the broad jump. Dick Maack of Ottawa won the two sprints.

Measuring Of Wheat Acres Completed

C. E. Johnson, office manager of the Pettis County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office, today reported that the measuring of 1959 wheat acreage on farms in the county is practically completed. ASC farm reporters have been measuring wheat acreage on farms during the past several weeks.

The reporters have attempted to visit all farmers who have wheat seeded; however, it is possible that some have not been contacted because it is not known that they have wheat seeded.

Johnson urged all farmers who have wheat that has not been measured, regardless of the use to be made of it, to notify the county ASC office at once. A reporter will then be sent out to determine the acreage.

Since marketing quotas are in effect for the 1959 wheat crop, every farmer needs a marketing card in order to sell his wheat. If this card is not presented when the wheat is sold, the buyer will deduct a penalty from the sale proceeds. Marketing cards cannot be issued to producers until the wheat acreage is properly determined by an ASC representative.

"Last year," Johnson said, "some farmers did not report their wheat acreages, so it could be measured, until after they had combined the wheat. When they delivered the wheat to the elevator for sale, they realized that the marketing cards were necessary. The farmers then had to contact the county ASC office and reporters were sent to measure the acreage."

"This delay and inconvenience for the farmer can be eliminated in 1959 if each farmer who has wheat that has not been measured will report it to our office at once."

Marketing quota regulations provide that all of the wheat produced on a farm where the wheat acreage allotment is not exceeded may be marketed penalty-free. Also, marketing quotas will not be applicable if the wheat acreage on a farm does not exceed 15 acres, regardless of the size of the allotment. However, if the wheat acreage allotment is exceeded, the wheat produced on the farm will not be eligible for price support.

"Farmers who have excess acres of wheat may dispose of the excess by using it, while still green, for pasture, green manure hay, or silage," Johnson said. "The deadline date for utilizing excess wheat in Pettis County will be June 10."

Until the War Between the States, all U.S. paper money was issued by banks. When a person borrowed money from a bank, he received it in the form of bank notes—simply promises by the bank to pay a stated sum to the holder of the note. State and local banks often lent more money than conditions warranted. A severe panic in 1857 resulted. A severe panic in 1857 resulted. In 1863, national banks, to issue national bank notes as paper money, were established.

Pettis NFO Holds Meet In Sedalia

The Pettis County National Farmers Organization held its regular monthly meeting Thursday night at the courthouse, and the main topic of discussion was the selection of county bargaining committees.

During the meeting the following committees were named: Meat committee, Olen Downs, chairman, Clinton Lowrey, James R. Remmison, Albert Anderson, and Robert W. Rissler.

Dairy committee, Thomas J. Smith, chairman, Clarence Williams and William Albers.

Grain committee, G. M. Breckenridge, chairman, Roy Maples, Howard Blakeley, Raymond Stockhurst, and J. L. Fowler.

Virgil Miller, Napton, area organizer, reported the national president, Oren Lee Staley, of Rea, Mo., has recently returned from the state of California, where he met with the Midwest Packers Association. He also announced President Staley will go next week to Chicago to meet with the packers there.

The meeting was well attended and considerable interest was shown in the discussions of the program of the collective bargaining plan, something new for the farmer.

Jack Curran, chairman of the Pettis NFO, presided over the meeting and announced the membership agreements are still coming in. The membership agreements are now on a three-year plan.

Daily Mirror In Attack On US Generals

LONDON (AP)—Britain's largest daily newspaper—the tabloid Daily Mirror—today devoted its entire front page to an attack on what it termed "meddling American generals."

Alongside an editorial, the pro-Laborite paper carried a photograph of U.S. Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO's top commander, labeled: "A threat to the hopes of world peace."

The editorial said there was a new menace to world peace—"the loudmouthed American generals."

"They appear totally unconcerned at efforts by the statesmen—Mr. Macmillan, Mr. Khrushchev, President Eisenhower—to settle the future of the world round the conference table."

The newspaper's ire was roused by Norstad's rejection of so-called disengagement in Europe during a British television interview, and by recent testimony before a U.S. congressional committee by Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. Thomas E. White, U.S. Air Force chief of staff, about the readiness of rocket bases in Britain.

The Mirror also condemned the flight last week of a U.S. plane to Berlin above 10,000 feet altitude an action which has drawn Soviet protests.

The name of the U.S. general who ordered the flight has not been disclosed, the paper said, "but irresponsibility—or lunacy—of his action is apparent to all."

The editorial called on Macmillan to urge Eisenhower "to put the generals in their place."

The Mirror's outburst was one of several recent indications of apparent British irritation with public pronouncements by some U.S. military leaders.

Lays Off Staff Workers

Most Unionists Get Hurt In Terms of Economy Cuts

DETROIT (AP)—Unionists who work for unions get hurt in recessions, just as unionists who work for industry do—in the pocket-book.

Take the huge United Auto Workers Union, for example. It has had two of what industry terms economic cutbacks in the last year.

The UAW has laid off 175 staff workers paid by international headquarters and its officers and executive board members were asked voluntarily to take a five per cent salary cut. They had given up to per cent for 18 weeks last year, but that was restored.

The staff cutback among $8,000-and-down employees amounts to roughly 20 per cent of the international's work force. Officer salaries are scaled downward from President Walter P. Reuther's $22,000 to $12,500 for executive board members.

The UAW had an average monthly dues-paying membership of 1,026,050 in 1958, down 289,411 from the 1957 average of 1,315,461. Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey reported the UAW operated $2,373,298 in the red in 1958.

The dues-paying drop amounts to $434,116 a month at the international level. The international gets $1.50 of the union's basic minimum dues of $3 a month. However, 40 cents is earmarked for specific uses such as strike benefits.

Using the 1958 dues-paying membership average, the international's income was $1,539,073 a month or $18,468,876 for the year, including earmarked funds.

Staffers laid off by the UAW could collect severance pay, amount depending upon length of service. Employees contribute 5

New Method An Aid In Cancer Fight

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer
EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo.
(AP)—Now scientists can poison an arm or leg to kill a cancer without killing the patient.

The technique is also being used on the lungs, breasts and pelvis to fight regional cancers.

The treated part of the body has to be shut off from the rest and supplied with a separate source of fresh blood.

Dr. Oscar Creech Jr. of Tulane University, described the new method before this week's American Cancer Society seminar.

A pumping machine that acts like an artificial heart and lung outside of the body makes the technique possible.

Suppose a doctor wanted to treat a cancerous leg with chemical poisons in an effort to kill the tumor.

He can shut off the cancerous leg by a tourniquet. Then he can hook up the artificial heart and lung to the blood vessels of the leg, circulating freshened blood through this area.

In this way, he can introduce strong poisons to the leg's blood stream for up to an hour without fear of poisoning the patient. Poisonous anti-cancer agents like nitrogen mustard can be used in fairly strong concentrations with little harm to the rest of the body.

There is some leakage, but it is not enough to hurt the patient.

The hour time limit reflects a tendency of the blood to become less useful under the strain of the pumping mechanism.

Essentially the leg or other part of the body is kept divided from the rest of the body. But in isolating some areas like the penis or the breast, isolation is less complete.

Instead of tourniquets, these areas may be isolated by using small balloons within the blood vessels to block the blood flow.

After the treatment, the poison is flushed out by plasma.

Gray Wastes of Atlantic Cloak Silent Naval Battle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The gray wastes of the Atlantic today cloak a silent, never-ending struggle for leadership in naval power.

Adm. Jerauld (Jerry) Wright, top sea dog for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, has a new worry—reports that the Soviet Union is developing a submarine that can launch a guided missile with an atomic warhead.

"They can convert a number of their existing submarines to that purpose," he said grimly. "The defense of North America from the threat of attack by guided-missile submarines is occupying a good deal of our attention."

This and a multitude of other problems in the day-to-day race for supremacy at sea are under constant study by 140 NATO officers at Wright's headquarters at Norfolk, Va. He is proud of the fact it is the first and only Allied military headquarters ever established on U.S. soil.

The tall, sparely built 60-year-old admiral wears two hats.

As American naval commander in the Atlantic, he guards the east-teth approaches to North and South American continents from the North Pole to the South Pole.

As NATO's Atlantic commander, his ships and men from eight Allied nations patrol millions of square miles between the West Indies and the North Pole, all the vital sea lines that link Europe and North America.

"It isn't an easy thing to bring naval forces of different nations into a coordinated task force," he said, "but we feel we have done it. They get along well, and they work together as a team."

"Three-fourths of Russia's 450 submarines are concentrated in European waters," he pointed out.

"There they are in position to try to sever Europe from America and extend the Iron Curtain to the very shoreline of the United States and Canada."

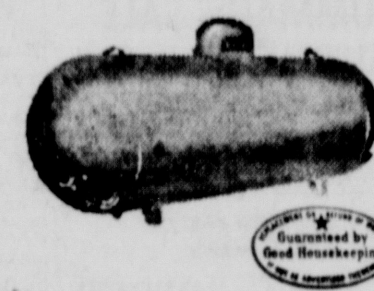

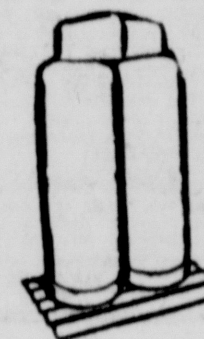

"That is their goal. Our task is to prevent them."

Wright, son of an Army lieutenant general, at 19 was one of the youngest men ever to be graduated from the Naval Academy. He served as naval aide to Presidents Calvin Coolidge and Herbert Hoover, played a hero's role in a number of daring naval combat missions during World War II.

Paints Old Plates; Gets $50 Fine

DETROIT (AP)—Police stopped Robert J. Lewis' panel truck when they noticed the front and rear license plates had different numbers. They said Lewis, 29, painted 1953 and 1955 plates this year's yellow and green colors and mounted them on the truck. Lewis said he didn't have the money to buy new plates. He was fined $50 after pleading guilty to a charge of improperly using motor vehicle plates.

Jumped Too Soon

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—David S. Morris, 46, a voluntary fireman relaxed in the chair of a barber shop having his beard trimmed. He was listening to a television program. Suddenly a siren wailed on the TV set and he jumped just as the barber was drawing the razor down the side of his throat. Six stitches were taken. An estimated 18,000 migrant farm workers come to New Jersey each year, mostly from Puerto Rico.

Divorce Now Official

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A divorce granted July 17, 1925, has become official at long last. Dist. Judge Sears McGee signed an order Thursday divorcing Florence Cox, now Florence Johnson, from John E. Cox. The original divorce was granted by retired Dist. Judge Ewing Boyd but never entered on the court's official minutes. Mrs. Johnson, who remarried 30 years ago, didn't discover the error until she recently asked for a copy of the decree as a document for a Social Security compensation application. Mrs. Johnson's attorney, Victor M. Petty, obtained an affidavit from Boyd last week certifying the divorce was granted in 1925.

Program To Air Views

NEW YORK (AP)—Persons in public life increasingly make use of television panel programs to express views that make news.

One of these, in which youth asks the questions, is "College News Conference" (ABC-TV, Sundays, 1 p.m., EST) Next Sunday, for example, the foreign ministers of the top NATO powers will appear on the program in observance of the 10th anniversary of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

They will be questioned by Ruth Hagy, producer and moderator of the program instead of the usual panel of five young people.

Miss Hagy said the purpose of the program not only is to learn the views of prominent guests but also to "present American youth in a positive light." The panelists are selected each week from a list of 700 colleges.

Miss Hagy said: "The young college people we encounter are more global-minded than when I was in school. But they don't seem able to work up the passions and indignations that we did when I was in college."

"They seem to feel that the era of social welfare reform is pretty much over. Their paramount concern is the threat of war."

"I don't think they're more conformist than we were. Young people always have had a great emotional need to live in groups. They establish their own clothing and slang and the like. It helps them cut the umbilical cord to their parents."

"To my mind the sad thing about so many young people today is that they don't seem young enough. They're all so realistic and have an astonishingly high degree of acceptance of things as they are."

Masked Gunmen Take Jewels From Diners

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Three masked gunmen invaded a home in exclusive Bel Air Wednesday night and robbed dinner party members, including actress Selene Walters, of $35,000 in jewels and furs.

Police said the robbers, wearing silk stockings on their faces, entered the home of Nina G. Anderton while she was entertaining Miss Walters and Eldred Meyer, a Beverly Hills business man.

Miss Walters and Meyer were forced at gunpoint into a den, where they were bound.

This was the third time Mrs. Anderton has been robbed. In 1954 four men forced their way into her home and took $19,000 in jewels. In 1949 she reported theft of $360,000 worth of gems. Police said this theft was the work of a notorious Canadian thief, Gerard Graham Dennis.

Nearly 100 Persons Take Part

Hog Marketing Day Here Is a Success

By Merle Vaughan
County Extension Agent

Nearly 100 folks were at the state fair grounds at Sedalia Wednesday to participate in the first hog marketing and grading day. Events included a grading demonstration, a carcass demonstration, a class of market hogs made up of one from each pen exhibited, and the grading of the entire 70 head on display.

In the carcass demonstration the No. 1 hog weighed 205 pounds, had a backfat thickness of 1.37 inches, a loin muscle area of 3.94 square inch and a carcass length of 30 inches. The three primal cuts of ham, loin and shoulder weighed out at 50 percent of the dressed carcass.

The No. 3 hog was 35 pounds heavier at 240 pounds, but its loin muscle area was less at 3.70 square inches. Its backfat averaged 1.97 inches, the carcass was 30½ inches long and the three primal cuts amounted to only 45 percent of the dressed carcass weight. Glenn Grimes, Extension Livestock Marketing Specialist from the University, was in charge of the carcass and grading demonstrations.

Right after lunch each exhibitor was invited to pull out what he thought was his top hog to compete with the pick from the other pens. Each owner had 10 hogs there, so that made a class of seven hogs from the 70 exhibited.

The selections were made by a group of hog buyers and commission men from the Kansas City Market. Their presence was arranged by Jim Leathers of the Kansas City Livestock Market Foundation. They included Bill Corson of John Clay Commission Co., Chuck Callaghan of Wilson Packing Company, and Paul Bredehoeft of the Frank Standish Commission Company.

The top three hogs included that of Forest Reid in first place, Paul Stephens in second, and Stevens McClure in third. McClure was ill at home, but was good enough to send his hogs to the meeting. The Kansas City market folks also graded the entire lot of 70 hogs. Twenty-six graded No. 1 and 44 as No. 2. There were no No. 3's. The top three pens were also selected with top place going to

Farmer Near California Shoots Self

Albert Alonzo (Lon) Birdsong, 64, a farmer residing northwest of California, died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound at about 8 a.m. Thursday, Cooper County Sheriff Lylburn Mann said the shooting, which took place at about 5:15 a.m., was suicide.

According to Mann, Birdsong's wife, Mrs. Dorothy Birdsong, heard the shot while she was preparing breakfast. She rushed into the bedroom and saw her husband, clutching a .22 caliber rifle in his hand, lying across the bed. The bullet entered the head just above the left cheek.

Mann said Birdsong had been despondent and moody for some time. He had been in ill health for several months.

An ambulance from the Wilson Funeral Home in California was called to the scene, but Birdsong died shortly after its arrival. Also called from California was Dr. K. J. O'Banion.

Mann said there will be no inquest since the incident was definitely suicide as proven by statements received from Mrs. Birdsong.

Birdsong was born on March 21, 1886, near Clarksburg, son of the late Steven Douglas Birdsong and Kermessia Jane Vaughan Birdsong. He was married to Dorothy McDowell, Clarksburg, on May 26, 1923, who survives.

Also surviving are three daughters, Miss Mary Ellen Birdsong of the home; Mrs. Bill Kinsey, California; Mrs. Estell Wood, Columbia; one son, Albert Birdsong, Kansas City; two brothers, Gollie Birdsong and Edgar Birdsong; a sister, Mrs. Delta Pinkson; one step-brother, Edward Birdsong; one step-sister, Mrs. Cora Luster, Clarksburg; and 12 grandchildren. He was a member of the Pisgah Baptist Church.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday at the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, north of Clarksburg, with the Rev. Ivan Dameron officiating.

Burial will be in the Church Cemetery. The body is at the Wilson Funeral Home, California.

Risk Crash With Soviet Fighters

Russian Spokesman Says It's Strictly A Matter of Safety

BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Union Thursday challenged America's determination to maintain free air access to Berlin. It warned any new high-altitude flights through the Berlin air corridors would risk collision with Soviet fighters.

A Soviet Embassy spokesman in East Berlin insisted the dispute over Western air access routes to this Communist-encircled city is strictly a matter of flight safety.

But U.S. officials said it involves the principle of Western rights in Berlin, now threatened by Moscow's diplomatic offensive on Germany.

Specifically at issue is whether the Soviets have a right to put a 10,000-foot altitude ceiling on the three Western air corridors, each running about 100 miles from West Germany to Berlin. Three Soviet fighters buzzed an unarmed American transport above 20,000 feet last Friday as it flew through one of the corridors.

The United States backed down on a plan to send through a second test flight Wednesday, possibly because of stern Soviet warnings. But a high-altitude C-130 Hercules transport was at an air base somewhere in West Germany standing ready to try again when Washington gives the green light.

Responsible informants said the big transports would fly cargo to Berlin as needed to supply the American garrison there. American officials have said the planes would disregard the Soviet altitude limit if necessary.

But a Soviet spokesman, Benjamin Sutulov, told newsmen the Soviet Union would stand firm on its 10,000-foot ceiling far too low for the turboprop Hercules transports to operate efficiently.

Sutulov was pressed to explain the Soviet warning that complications would arise if the United States followed up Friday's initial C-130 high-altitude flight.

"We mean by complications that American and Soviet planes could ram into each other. We do not know what consequences such a collision would have," he replied.

The Soviet Union and the three Western powers have disagreed for years over the corridor ceiling, never covered by any written agreement.

Sedalia Schools Get Federal Appropriation

The U.S. Commissioner of Education notified the Sedalia Public School District 200, that $11,682 of the tentative annual entitlement has been approved for immediate payment. This represents approximately 85 per cent of the total $18,325.45 applied for.

Under the present pro-rating of appropriations this will probably be the total amount received. This is an annual appropriation made by the federal government to support children of government employees and servicemen attending public schools.

The LaMonte schools were also certified for $4,467 for the school year, with $2,848 due immediately.

Move to Solve Problem Of Cab Parking

Merchants, Cab Officials Meet, Agree Upon Plan

Efforts to relieve a taxi-cab parking problem in downtown Sedalia are being made for the benefit of the merchants as well as for the cab companies. A meeting held this week at the City Hall between parties involved resulted in a proposed plan which is now being put into effect.

After considerable discussion the matter was turned over to City Engineer C. T. Calder, acting as traffic engineer, and Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin. They have come up with a plan to be tried out which has met with approval of the cab owners.

To remove cabs from the streets and from business areas where they had been "bunched", the following spaces have been arranged and are to be designated for taxi cab parking: on the Fifth Street side of the southwest corner of Fifth and Ohio, for a cab of the Veterans Cab Co.; two stands in front of the cab company office at 208 East Second; two stands in the presently marked bus zone on the east side of Lamine between Main and Second.

Yellow Cab Co. will have a parking space on Fourth Street, in front of the Bothwell Hotel just east of Ohio; another in the space between the two driveways to the hotel parking lot; spaces along Lamine between Fifth and the alley south on the west side of the street; and two spaces in front of the office at 110 East Fifth.

These spaces are to be designated for taxi-cab parking only, and any car which might park there, other than a cab, will be given a

Succeeded by Simon

Kelly, MP Superintendent, Retires Effective March 31

Harry M. Kelly, 1411 South Barrett, who has been shop superintendent at the Missouri Pacific Shops since Feb. 1, 1957, has retired, effective March 31, and Wednesday afternoon was honored with a farewell party at which time he was presented a gift. The gift was a box cooler for his car, the top tray of which was filled with silver and dollar bills from his fellow employees and friends on the railroad from Houston to Omaha and Colorado to St. Louis.

Succeeding Kelly as shop superintendent is James S. Simon, 1620 West Broadway, who came to Sedalia in February, 1957, as general car foreman and has held that position until his recent promotion.

Simon was relieved by James M. Wiseman, general car foreman, who will move to Sedalia April 10, and will reside at 1100 South Barrett.

Kelly started to work on the Missouri Pacific in 1909 in St. Louis on the repair track, worked at various capacities until promoted to foreman in 1922 and came to Sedalia as general car foreman in 1926. He and his wife have two married daughters.

His plans for the future at the present are indefinite. Right now he is going to rest and enjoy life a bit, but maybe later he might go into some kind of business.

Simon started railroad work in 1919 on the Santa Fe at Chanute, Kan., and served his apprenticeship as carman. He has been carman, assistant foreman, general car foreman and during the war was a trainmaster before returning to his position as general car foreman at Omaha.

He started with the Missouri Pacific in 1922 as carman and has been with that company continuously since that time in different capacities.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon have a son in the Air Force in Alaska and two married daughters.

Wiseman started at North Little Rock in 1933 worked in different capacities at Little Rock and DeSoto before coming to Sedalia as general car foreman. He is married and has three children at home, one son at the Chicago University.

Policeman Suspended Due to Speed

Hamlin Says Speed On Mercy Errand Endangered Lives

A 15-day suspension was given Police Officer Murl Steele, 1604 West Main, by Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin Thursday afternoon. The suspension came after Steele drove a police car up Ohio Avenue at an excessive speed while taking a woman to the hospital.

Steele had answered a call to the MFA about 1:30 p.m. where ammonia fumes were escaping and Mrs. Mary Bockelman, an employee had been partially overcome. She was placed in the police car and Steele started his trip to the Bothwell Hospital.

Chief Hamlin said, "Although I realize Officer Steele was on an errand of mercy and desired to get the lady to the hospital, I do not believe, in my own opinion, he used good judgment in speeding up Ohio Avenue at the speed he was driving. This not only endangered the lives of the lady with him and his own, but was also that of those persons on Ohio."

"I was standing at Second and Ohio when the police car went by, headed South, and as a result of my observation, I feel that I must suspend the officer for the 15 days for not using good judgment."

Chief Hamlin reported that this layoff along with the sickness of two other officers has resulted in his putting on the job two other men. He announced Thursday night effective Friday he was transferring Officer William Raines, 503 East 10th, from the meter department to the police department.

He appointed temporarily Robert Hopkins, 703 East 17th, to the police department as a patrolman.

Chief Hamlin also stated he was replacing Raines in the meter department by Robert Quinn, 717 West Seventh. Quinn will become a meter mechanic which position

General Is a GI Hero

Col. Who Bumped Airmen Faces Probe

TOKYO (AP)—The general who commands U. S. forces in Japan has emerged as a GI hero—along with a spunky enlisted man who took a protest right to the top.

Lt. Gen. Robert W. Burns ordered a military airliner back to Japan, put aboard five enlisted men on emergency home furlough, and opened an investigation of the lieutenant colonel they said had bumped them.

"All I can say is that as far as I'm concerned, I had nothing to do with keeping those people off the plane," said Lt. Col. Charles Platt Jr. of New York City. He had been headed for a vacation in Hawaii.

The Air Force and the enlisted men told about the incident Thursday, a week after it happened. The Air Force said Platt may be completely innocent. But one enlisted man insisted the men with their emergency travel orders bumped the colonel, and he got mad and bumped them back.

Two soldiers were hurrying home for their mothers' funerals. Both got there too late, although it is possible they would have been too late anyway. Another was going home for his son's funeral.

This is the sequence of events as given by the Air Force in Tokyo, ready to board the "Pacific Express" for emergency furloughs:

Platt, who is commander of the passenger terminal at Tachikawa, arrived with his wife and four children.

"We bumped him," said Airman Robert J. Kindl of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., who was going home for the funeral of his 4-year-old son.

"He got mad, pulled rank and ordered a major underneath him to bump us," Kindl said.

The enlisted men said they appealed to officers at the air base but the officers replied they could do nothing about it.

Airman Cole Y. Bell, Fayetteville, Tenn., was anxious to get to the bedside of a brother injured in a traffic accident. He decided to call Burns, an Air Force general.

With the help of the Red Cross, Bell got Burns on the phone. The plane had taken off for Hawaii, but Burns checked the soldiers' story and had the plane headed back within 30 minutes. Then Burns went out to the airport to see the enlisted men got on the plane.

"We didn't want to do a thing like that but we had top priority emergency furloughs," said Sgt. John P. Snyder of Vandergrift, Pa.

En route back, the "Pacific Express" had to dump most of its full fuel load into the ocean as a safety precaution before landing. Then two of the seven enlisted men could not be found. The Air Force put five of them on the plane along with two other high priority passengers, and sent the airliner on its way again.

The others besides Kindl, Bell and Snyder were Airman Gordon N. Read, Ithaca, N.Y.; and Sgt. Paul S. Cain, Sedalia, Mo.

Read said he missed his mother's funeral because of the colonel. Snyder arrived home the day after funeral services for his mother but the body was kept at a funeral home so he could see it.

Herter Says US Progress Beats Russia

Ike Warns Against Illusions in Efforts To Agree With Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States pledged Thursday to use its full array of aircraft and missile power to defend its Atlantic Pact allies if it should become necessary.

It made this pledge shortly after President Eisenhower had cautioned this country's North Atlantic Pact Allies against "substituting illusions for reality" in seeking tension-reducing agreements with Russia.

Speaking on behalf of the U. S. Government, acting Secretary of State Christian Herter also told the 15-nation Atlantic Pact Council that the United States is now making faster progress than Russia in developing missiles.

Herter described American military might at a closed-door review of Soviet threats against Berlin and Germany.

He stressed the need for the allies to stand firm while offering to negotiate differences with Russia.

Despite the mounting tensions over Berlin, Herter predicted the crisis would be settled without shooting.

Herter spoke out a few hours after Eisenhower addressed the opening meeting of the pact countries.

Recalling his days as a soldier, Eisenhower appealed for free people to display courage, sacrifice and perseverance while their governments search carefully for just solutions to current East-West deadlocks.

"We must be prepared, during the years ahead," Eisenhower said "to live in a world in which tension and bickering between free nations and the Soviets will be daily experiences."

Herter's remarks at the closed door session that followed Eisenhower's talk were relayed to newsmen by Asst. Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding.

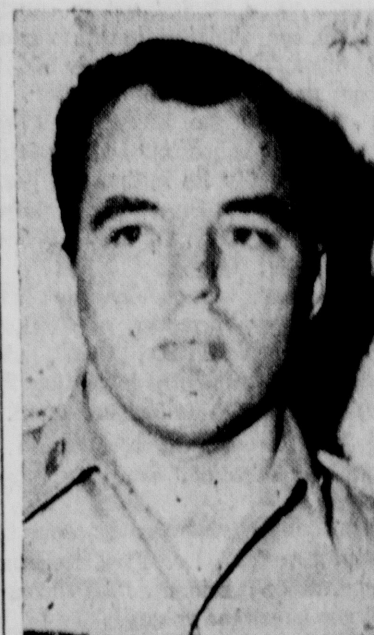

Addressing the same closed-door meeting, Britain's Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd assured the allied representatives that his country stands as firmly as the other allies in resisting Russian pressure for one-sided agreements.

Lloyd put Britain on record as viewing any plan for neutralizing or demilitarizing Germany as the worst possible solution of the German problem.

He also said Britain would not advocate any troop and arms freeze plan in central Europe unless it was linked with the goal of German reunification.

Lloyd's remarks at the closed door afternoon session were relayed to newsmen by a NATO spokesman. They were clearly aimed at dispelling reports that the British favored making more concessions to the Soviets than do

Unusual Procedures

A New Statement of Faith For United Church of Christ

NEW YORK (AP)—Some unusual procedures—in an unusual atmosphere—went into the making of a new statement of Christian faith for the recently merged United Church of Christ.

The new statement was born in a document-stacked room at the Airport Hotel in Pittsburgh, Pa.

"It was a rather unorthodox setting," said the Rev. Dr. James E. Wagner, of Philadelphia, co-president of the denomination. "But that room seemed to be sanctified by what went on there."

Lay men and women as well as churchmen had a hand in molding the 231-word document.

The commission of 30 theologians, pastors and laymen, representing the Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed Churches, worked fifteen months on it. It was completed Jan. 23.

The statement, while affirming belief in Christ's divinity and in the Trinitarian concept of God, does not use the usual theological phraseology for these doctrines, nor does it mention the virgin birth.

Dr. Wagner said the effort was to arrive at a statement that would include the essentials, but be "broad enough for persons of varying points of view."

Made public Wednesday, the statement goes before the church's general synod meeting in Oberlin, Ohio, July 5-9 with recommendations for adoption as a "testimony and not a test" of membership.

First step in formulating it was a research assignment. Each commission member read a three-volume study covering the background of all the creeds drawn up in 2,000 years of Christianity.

Then came another novel twist. Each commission member drafted a statement and submitted it anonymously.

"These were the subject of extensive discussion at a later meeting," said the Rev. Loring D. Chase, of New Canaan, Conn., commission secretary. "Then draft upon draft upon draft followed."

Between writing sessions, participants joined in worship and prayer in the hotel room.

Finally, four commission members were singled out to consolidate the thinking in the various proposals, and submit new individual drafts—also anonymously.

Of these the Rev. Mr. Chase said, one stood out as superior. Subsequently its authorship came out—the Rev. Dr. Roger L. Shinn, of Vanderbilt Divinity School, Nashville, Tenn.

Another version—by the Rev. Dr. Roger Hazelton, of Pomona College, Claremont, Calif., also figured prominently in putting the statement into its finished form.

But the over-all result was a mutual creation, the churchmen said.

"It is a vigorous statement," said the Rev. Dr. Fred Hoskins, church co-president. "All through it one hears the voices of the faithful through the ages chanting the historic confessions of the 'faith delivered once unto the saints.'"

Widespread protestant interest has focused on the statement, since the merger has brought together the noncreedal, noncentralized Congregational Christian churches, and the Evangelical and Reformed Church which has used the historic creeds.

Some Congregational Christian maintained the union would mean imposing creeds on members, and infringing on congregational freedoms.

Most of the classical Christian creeds—such as the Nicene Creed, the Augsburg Confession, the Westminster Confession—were produced at councils and ecclesiastical assemblies, called by emperors or parliaments.

LaMonte Church Class Holds Regular Meeting

Thirty-three persons enjoyed the dinner at the regular meeting of the KJU Class of the LaMonte Christian Church on Wednesday, March 18. Tables, which were decorated by the pastor's wife, Mrs. Roy Smith, were in keeping with the Easter season and the centerpiece was a large bouquet of Easter lilies.

In the afternoon, the meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Roy Alexander, with the group singing, "He Lives." The devotional was given by Mrs. Virgil Fisher, followed with a prayer by Mrs. C. E. Terry, after which all joined in singing "He Arose," with Miss Mabel Harris as accompanist and Mrs. Fisher as song leader.

During the business session, plans were made by the class for additional missionary work for the summer and committee's appointed for various projects. The program was in charge of Mrs. Edna Martin and Miss Mabel Harris.

Miss Enid Johnson gave a most interesting report of her recent trip to California. Enroute home she stopped over at Winslow, Ariz., for a weekend visit with Mrs. Mabel Rogers and daughter, Mildred, who are both members of the KJU Class. Miss Johnson reports a most enjoyable visit with them and told of the sight seeing trips they took her on in various places of interest in Arizona.

Following Miss Johnson's talk, the class quartette composed of Mrs. F. H. Schenk, Mrs. Hazel Wasson, Mrs. D. I. Sevier and Mrs. Harry Duffer sang "Back of the Clouds the Sun Is Always Shining."

The remaining part of the program was given by Mrs. Marion Bishop who showed pictures taken in France during the period of time the family spent there when Mr. Bishop was stationed there with the military.

Balls of Fire
HOBART, Okla. (AP)—Numerous residents telephoned police headquarters reporting they saw fire balls floating in the air. Turned out they were thistles blown into an electric power plant and caught fire. Strong wind carried them into the air.

Gets 18 Months For Embezzlement

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—"You're a very foolish woman," Federal District Judge William Juergens told Mrs. Florence Ann O'Reilly yesterday as he sentenced her to 18 months in prison for embezzlement of $11,300.

The 37-year-old widow took the money from the First National Bank of Waterloo, Ill., and then gave it to her boy friend.

The judge said the mother of two children had been blackmailed into taking the money. Mrs. O'Reilly said the boy friend was "no good from start to finish," but she wouldn't divulge his name saying only that he was a St. Louis dancing teacher.

The judge denied her request for probation.

Mrs. O'Reilly, a trusted employee of the bank, was a bookkeeper-teller.

HARNESSING THE NILE—Bogged down for years in international politics and beset with money troubles, Egypt's attempt to build a great dam across the Nile River at Aswan (see Newsmap above) nears realization. U.S. withdrawal of support for the project was one of the factors involved in United Arab Republic President Nasser's seizure of the Suez Canal in 1956. Photo shows workmen dwarfed by the structure. Slated for completion in 1960, it will not only add two million acres of arable land to Egypt's narrow life-supporting strip along the Nile, but will supply nearly two billion kilowatts of electricity each year.

$130,000 Bond Issue

Proposed Convention Hall Renovation Told Optimists

A. W. Haller, a member of the Sedalia Park Board, was the speaker at Optimists' Club Tuesday noon at Bothwell Hotel and presented the proposed plan for the remodeling and equipping Convention Hall, Liberty Park, to serve the needs of the community for all occasions, including conventions, for which it was built in 1911.

The $130,000 bond issue for this purpose, will be voted on at the general election on April 7, Haller said.

Convention Hall, Haller explained, is a sound building, but not very useful. There are cracks in the back and front walls which can be repaired satisfactorily, and tapered concrete columns would be put in at the corners to relieve the walls of the weight of the roof. A new floor would be put over the old floor which would make it strong, even for an automobile show. The foundation beneath the floor is substantial, but the wood itself is not thick enough in the one floor.

Complete kitchen facilities will be at the west end of the building back of the stage, Haller said. Although meals could be cooked there, banquets for large conventions and such things would, no doubt, be catered.

There would be an acoustical ceiling, he continued, which would be about as high as the present ceiling, so that basketball tournaments could be held there. For such events, too, he said, there would be removable bleachers.

There would be an entrance on the north side large enough for automobiles to go through, for an automobile show. This door would also serve as a private entrance when the auditorium is divided by accordion doors for two separate meetings.

When questioned about the accordion doors serving the purpose, because they do not shut out the sound, Haller said that was being taken into consideration. Two such doors may solve the problem. If not they would do something else.

Haller went on to say that a public address system will be installed, as well as a new heating plant and an air conditioning system which can be used to heat or cool only the room or rooms to be used.

The main room would seat at least 700 persons for a banquet, Haller said, and he believed that even 800 could be served. For conventions and other types of meetings and programs, the seating capacity would be 2,000.

The windows would be squared instead of arched as they are now, and alternating windows would be filled in with glass blocks.

The lobby, Haller said, would be completely revamped, the stairway moved to the side, and the fountain would be in the center where the wide stairway is now. There would be new recessed doors at the front entrance.

Upstairs would be divided into three meeting rooms, also large enough for square dances. There would be a small kitchen upstairs, also, so it would be possible for five different activities to be going on in the building at the same time.

The stage would be a little lower, Haller said. The rental on any of the rooms would be as low as possible, because this is not for the purpose of making money, but to provide services for the community at a cost to take care of the expenses. The parking area would be expanded too, to give more parking space.

There would be three separate restrooms inside the building in addition to the one now on the south side downstairs.

The $130,000, Haller said, would include tables, chairs and all equipment needed.

Haller was introduced by Robert Lindstrom, program chairman.

Also introduced was Robert Black, superintendent of city parks.

The meeting was presided over by Gerald Cecil, president. Invocation was by the Rev. James Schrader. Larry Wanserski led the singing, with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

Cecil announced that at a board meeting the Optimist Club decided to sponsor the Babe Ruth League, as it had been asked to do. This would mean the administrative part, he said, and called on Ed Mitchell to explain what this

Dad's Night Observed At Broadway

Broadway PTA gave an appreciation dinner in honor of the Broadway faculty on the evening of March 20. Dad's night was held in conjunction with the dinner and meeting. Special guests were Judge E. W. Couey, the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Strubling, Superintendent and Mrs. T. J. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sillers and speech director, Mrs. Nannie Sims. Norris was then introduced as the guest speaker for the evening. His topic was the tax levy, which will be voted on April 7. He explained what the increase in the levy is for: to be used for the increased enrollment at the high school, for special education in the school, and for the extra expense of the fire safety recommendations.

Room count was taken with plant awards going to Miss Barnett downstairs and Mrs. Howe upstairs.

A quartet consisting of Chester Edging, Dale Gruenwald, Mark Bergmann and Marvin Boehne then sang the following: "I've Been Working on the Railroad," "All Through the Night," "I Had a Dream, Dear," "Kentucky Babe," and "Now the Day is Over."

Mrs. Sterling Wheeler gave a report of the nominating committee and the new officers for 1959-60 were introduced.

Professor Says Wife May Visit Husband at Office

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Should a wife be encouraged to visit her husband's office frequently?

Prof. James A. Peterson, a marriage counselor at the University of Southern California, says this is a good idea. He says it would help give wives an appreciation of their husband's problems and pressures on the job.

We don't agree at all. We have another idea. We think every office should hire a 230-pound ex-football tackle as a receptionist.

His duty would be simple. Every time a wife stuck her nose in the door, the receptionist would throw a hammerlock on her, rattle her into the nearest elevator, and push the button marked "Down."

We are somewhat old-fashioned in this matter. We don't say a woman's only place is in the kitchen of her home. But we do say her place definitely is not in her husband's office. And, except for one or two born cowards, every man we know feels pretty much the same way.

The average man likes to dramatize the horrors and hardships he undergoes in his task of bringing home the bacon.

So what happens when his wife, during a pause in shopping, drops into the office unexpectedly?

Everybody in the office is busy working but her husband. He is sitting there, laughing, with his feet on the desk and seemingly staring at the derriere of a passing stenographer.

The wife's visit is brief and frigid. Here is a sample of the conversation at home that night. Wife: "You were the only one loafing."

Husband: "As God is my judge, I'd just put my feet on that desk one second before you came in—just to rest them."

Wife: "But you were laughing."

Husband: "The boss had just told me a joke and gone into his office. When the boss tells a joke, you have to laugh, it's a form of unemployment insurance."

Wife: "Why were you staring at that pretty stenographer?"

Husband: "What stenographer? I never even saw her. I was just trying to figure out the point to the boss's joke."

Wife, unconvinced: "Well, I wish someone would pay me money just to sit around and laugh with both feet on the desk. Don't give me any more guff about what a hard life you have at the office. If you ask me, I don't think you'll be there much longer—from the look of things."

Japan Gives Report On Philandering

TOKYO (AP)—Japan is a nation of philandering husbands and faithful wives, a local Dr. Kinsey reported today.

Prof. Shinichi Asayama of Osaka Municipal University estimated that 60 to 70 per cent of all Japanese husbands have sex relations with women other than their wives, but less than 8 per cent of the wives are unfaithful.

"Japanese husbands, compared to American husbands, are five times safer as far as their wives' fidelity is concerned," he said.

The 51-year-old geneticist published his findings in the leading woman's magazine "Fujin Koron" (Women's Forum) after questioning 257 married women and 182 husbands. The magazine devoted a special issue to "The Problem of Men."

Asayama also surveyed 4,838 unmarried men and 1,200 single working girls between the ages of 20 and 30. The incidence of sexual experience among the men ranged from 20 per cent of the 20-year-olds to 75 per cent of the 30-year-olds. Nonvirginity among the women increased from 18 to 28 per cent.

Of the unmarried men, said Asayama, "The rate was lowest among young bank employees. Perhaps their occupation made them as solid as their banks' safes."

He attributed the widespread infidelity among married men to three things: (1) the traditional system of marriages arranged by parents; (2) widespread tacit approval of prostitution, and (3) the training traditionally given respectable Japanese girls which "makes them technical wives and mothers but fails to develop women with the ability to respond positively to the manly desires of their husbands."

Whereas only 8 to 15 per cent of American husbands philander with prostitutes, the professor reported, 60 per cent of the errant Japanese men resorted to professionals and another 20 per cent to scimprios.

"Japanese men," he said, "have grown accustomed to contacts with professional women and have developed the ability to introduce this custom into their married life without contradiction."

3-Year Prison Term, 5 Years of Probation For Defrauding Banks

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A 24-year-old man who reportedly defrauded 25 banks of more than $23,000 in less than a year was sentenced Thursday to serve 3 years in federal prison to be followed by 5 years of probation.

He is William Wayne Phillips, formerly of Leavenworth, Kan., and Richmond, Mo., who a month ago pleaded guilty to defrauding a bank at Belton, Mo., of $1,500.

Horace W. Kimbrell, assistant U. S. district attorney, reported Phillips had within less than a year obtained $23,065 from 25 banks in Missouri, Kansas and Iowa by borrowing money on cars he did not own or even on non-existent cars.

Judge Jasper Smith said Phillips had for 10 years had a habit of making his living off other persons' money with his facile pen. He said the man never had been prosecuted because restitution either had been made by himself or his family.

Phillips was arrested Feb. 11 at Savannah, Mo., while driving an improperly registered car.

To Quit Civil Rights

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—President Theodore M. Hesburgh of the University of Notre Dame said Thursday he will quit as a member of the U. S. Civil Rights Commission Sept. 9.

Officers Bag 45 Men In Gaming Raid

PIERMONT, New York (AP)—Agents of the State Investigation Commission and other officers bagged 45 well-heeled men in a gambling raid here Wednesday night.

Several expensive cars—including a Rolls Royce—were parked outside the raided building.

Commission Chairman Jacob Grumet said at his New York City home: "We cooperated with the Rockland County district attorney because we believe this (gambling) organization extends beyond Rockland County. This raid was part of our fight against organized crime."

Sheriff J. Henry Moch said: "This was nothing like the Alachua convention."

Sixty-odd underworld figures and associates were picked up by state troopers who raided a mansion at Apalachin, a tiny upstate New York community, Nov. 14, 1957. All were released after questioning because, state police said, there were no grounds to arrest them. The State Investigation Commission and several other agencies are still trying to learn the purpose of that convention.

Wednesday night's raid was on an abandoned building on this Hudson River commuter community, 20 miles north of Times Square, across from populous northern New Jersey.

Moch said most of those seized were from New York City and New Jersey.

State Saves On Power From Private Utility

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—W. E. Sears said Thursday the state has been buying power from a private utility at the Boonville Training School for Boys since 1957 and has saved money.

Sears, director of the training school board, said for years and years the state produced its own power at the school for juvenile delinquents but mounting fuel and maintenance costs were making that uneconomical.

He said the equipment was not adequate to handle the job and some of the facilities furthest from the plant just didn't get the necessary voltage. It was necessary to overload the plant and that was dangerous.

So he asked Missouri Power and Light Co. of Jefferson City, which also serves the city of Boonville and has provided standby power at the school for years, to survey the cost of becoming the primary power source at the institution.

Sears said the industrial rate quoted showed that the state could save about $5,000 a year. But actual savings have ranged between $6,000 and $7,000 a year.

The school's boilers still being used to provide heat and hot water and are available for power generation on a standby basis.

Sears said before accepting the MPL contract he asked the nearest REA cooperative if it would be able to supply the necessary power. He said the co-op, with headquarters at Tipton, reported it could not.

Medal Winning Airman Pianist

By A-2c Winston Purvis
A-3c Calixto C. Alvarez, FMS, known throughout Whiteman as an airman with a master's touch, is well on his way to becoming a famous concert pianist.

A native of Santa Clara, Cuba, he enlisted in the Air Force in July 1958, and was assigned to Whiteman in Feb. 1959 after a seven-month electronic course at Chanute AFB, Ill.

Calixto enrolled in the International School of Music in Havana, Cuba at the age of 15, where he studied the piano for four years, practicing no less than six hours a day. During this time, he won four Gold Medal Awards in musical competition, the highest award in Cuba. He has played with several well-known Cuban conductors as well as in concerts in the states.

In April 1956, Airman Alvarez and his family moved to the United States, settling in Hartford, Conn. Enrolling in the Julius Heart College of Music in Hartford, Calixto again studied the piano for another six months. He then decided to study musical composition, which he did, under Professor Pouche, of the Julius Heart College.

After completing the course, he began teaching private lessons in his home. The "old" urge for study hit Calixto again in about six months, so back he went to the Julius Heart College, this time to study organ.

Six months later, Uncle Sam knocked on his door, and Calixto decided to enlist in the Air Force. To date Airman Alvarez has composed several concertos, etudes and nocturnes, which he is presently trying to sell.

IT TAKES TWO TO TANGO, but Mr. Jose Rosenthal, of Sedalia, and A-3c Calixto Alvarez, FMS, are doing a fine job with a Beethoven sonata for piano and violin. Mr. Rosenthal, conductor of the Sedalia Symphony Orchestra is giving Airman Alvarez a few pointers on accompanying a violinist. Calixto, a native of Santa Clara, Cuba, and a polished musician in his own right, was a guest of Mr. Rosenthal last Wednesday evening. (Photo by T-Sgt. M. Stevens.)

Red ribbon winners in the play contest were: "If Girls Ask Boys for Dates" by Quisenberry 4-H Hustlers, "Father Says No" by Striped College, both of which were presented Tuesday night, and "Winter Sunset" presented Wednesday night. The last play was about a mother, played by Mrs. Ronald Eichholz, who had spent all she had in educating her son, played by Philip Monsees, and was about to go to live with him when he came home with his wife, Mrs. Phillip Monsees, she didn't know he had. She learned she was not wanted and did not go. Her doctor, played by Elwood Schlobohm, had told her she did not have long to live, and after her son and his wife had gone she sat down to re-read one of his treasured Christmas telegrams and died reading it. The play was directed by Mrs. Frank Yeage, and Mrs. Phyllis Day.

Receiving red ribbons in the 4-H Share the Fun Festival were: "Shadow Operation" with Pamela Long, Steven Long, Dale Reine, Patricia Mewes and Bobby Mewes of the Tanglehook 4-H Club; "So Shy" with Ann Johnson and Jimmy Johnson, High Point Hoppers 4-H Club; "South Side Six," Janet Dieckmann, Ronald Dieckmann, Ronald Viebrock, Dale Viebrock, Kent Vannoy and Ralph Rehmer, South Side County Liners 4-H Club; and Beaverettes, Betty Cole, Patty Templeton and Sharon Eastep, of the Busy Beavers 4-H Club.

Four were behind a green and white screen and appeared over the top singing "I'm Looking Over a Four Leaf Clover" and then with their shoes, the soles of which glistered green, over the top appeared to be dancing upside down. Four more, each with a leaf of the four leaf clover told what the four H's stand for and then put them together to form the 4-H emblem. Another girl was master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Lewis Hammond, Jr., presided both evenings and announced the numbers.

Second place went to Forrest Reid on ten 200 pound hogs. They graded similarly with six No. 2's and four No. 1's. John Knaus showed the third place pen which also averaged 200 pounds. The lot included eight No. 1's and two No. 2's. Many of the No. 1 hogs yesterday were criticized for lack of finish and the committee felt the Knaus hogs would be more desirable with a little more weight. Others bringing 10 hogs each included W. C. Corlew and Frank Sellers.

Folks in charge of the meeting Wednesday included Frank Sellers, Chairman; Frederick Lovercamp, Vice-Chairman; and Paul Stephens, Secretary. Committee chairmen were: R. D. the United States, France, West Germany and other Atlantic Pact partners.

Conference spokesmen sought to picture the four Western Allies as firmly united in their determination to withstand Russia pressure for important concessions.

Some 1,400 delegates and distinguished guests from the member countries gathered to hear Eisenhower deliver a keynote address at the opening session of the three-day meeting called to review defenses against Soviet attack.

The main item of business was a report by the U. S. British, French and West German governments on a two-day conference which ended here Wednesday without agreement on what concessions to offer the Soviets.

Eisenhower avoided mentioning the Berlin crisis directly in his brief address. But he pledged to "make concrete and realistic proposals" about the over-all German problem in a move to improve relations with the Soviet Union.

Sedalia Petrol Dealers Halt Gas Price War

The gasoline price war which reached Sedalia on March 21 is apparently ended. Prices of most major and cut-rate brands in the Sedalia area were returned to normal on Wednesday and Thursday.

Gasoline prices in Kansas City also have returned to normal. Kansas City has experienced several months of price cutting, much to the enjoyment of motorists in that area. However, the pricing dispute failed to reach Sedalia until last week despite the lower prices which were prevailing in areas as nearby as Warrensburg and Marshall Junction. Now the prices have returned to normal competitive levels in all of Western Missouri.

Although no announcement was made to the effect, Sedalia petroleum dealers apparently agreed to return to competitive pre-war pricing Thursday. The few major and cut-rate brands which continued to sell at reduced prices on Thursday indicated their prices would be increased to competitors' levels on Friday.

Motors who were able to take advantage of the brief "war" will find the price of both ethel and regular gasoline increased when the next tank is purchased. The amount of the increase, which is one cent, has been attributed to an increase of refinery prices.

tered the service in 1950 and was stationed at the Whiteman AFB, during which time he moved his family to Sedalia. He was transferred to duty overseas at Okinawa last October. His family decided to remain in Sedalia, as the parents of both Sgt. and Mrs. Cain have also moved to Sedalia to make their homes. The parents of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. Veri Langley, Sixth and Engineer, parents of Mrs. Cain, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McWilliams, 806 West 16th, parents of Sgt. Cain.

In telling of the Tokyo incident which occurred on March 26, he said, "After we were bumped, some of the fellows said they guessed they'd have to wait until the next day But Airman Coye Y. Bell, of Fayetteville, Tenn., whose mother was critically ill, and myself were anxious to get on our way. When we got bumped, we talked about calling the general and after we found out his name, Bell and I went to a phone booth and Bell called him.

"I stopped the lieutenant colonel and tried to explain my situation. I told him my baby was critically ill and I didn't know if she was still alive or not."

Asked what the colonel said in S-Sgt. Cain said, "I don't recall him saying anything. He just turned his back and walked on over to the plane and got on. We really felt bad, because we all wanted to get back home."

"It was after that we tried to get in touch with someone and finally reached Lt. Gen. Burns, who was very kind to us and really took care of things. I can speak for everyone of those fellows. We're extremely grateful to Gen. Burns for what he did for us."

S-Sgt. Cain expects to be home with his family for about two weeks when he has to return to his duties in Okinawa.

His home was originally in Eldon, before moving to Kansas City about 1935, where he resided until entering the service in 1950. He and Mrs. Cain were married in Mississippi in 1951.
